

Police Body To Ask $5,000 To Install New Radio System

Council To Be Requested To Set Up Funds for Proposed Aid in War on Crime in Atlanta.

WILL ASK PERMIT TO ERECT STATION

Committee Plans To Send Police Secretary Pendley to Detroit To Study System There.

Installation of a police radio broadcasting station and radio-equipped police department automobiles as the most scientific and modern method of making emergency calls was a step nearer realization Wednesday night, when the police committee of city council voted to ask city council to set up $5,000 to purchase equipment, a decision to apply at once to federal authorities for a permit to construct such a station and preliminary action looking towards sending O. H. Pendley, secretary of the department, to Detroit to study methods of operation there.

Action of the committee on the three preliminary steps was unanimous and Alderman J. Charles Murphy, chairman of the police committee of city council, announced that Walter C. Hendrix, chairman of the police committee of Fulton county, had pledged the cooperation of the county in assisting in establishment of the system in order that the county "might also reap some of the benefits of the new department."

Application To Be Sought.

Mr. Pendley was instructed to apply at once to W. Van Nostrand, United States supervisor of radio, for a permit to erect the station. It is expected that it will take several days for the permit to be granted.

In the meantime, Chief James L. Beavers, of the Atlanta department, will communicate with his old friend, Chief William P. Rutledge, of Detroit, as to the success of the system there.

Success in Detroit.

"I am informed that the success of the Detroit department with the use of the radio within the past eight months has been nothing short of phenomenal," Mr. Murphy said. "This, to my mind, is one of the most constructive pieces of work the department has accomplished."

MRS. E. L. BEAVER TO RECEIVE $17,793 BY SISTER'S WILL

New York, N. Y., December 12.—Mrs. E. L. Beaver, of 1050 Ponce de Leon avenue, Atlanta, will receive $17,793, according to an appraisal of the estate of her late sister, Mrs. Mattie B. James, in the office of the New York state transfer tax department here today.

The Scottish Rite Hospital for Children at Atlanta will receive $10,000. Mrs. James died June 9, 1927. Her estate showed a net value of $559,438.

Mrs. Beaver stated Wednesday night that she had been notified of the inheritance and indicated that the sum was slightly in excess of $17,000. Officials of the Scottish Rite hospital, however, stated that they had not been officially informed of the bequest said to have been made to their institution.

BOARD TO PROBE ALLEGED ATTEMPT AT PRICE "FIXING"

School Committee Ready To Investigate Charges of W. S. Loftis at Meeting Friday.

Hearing of charges of W. S. Loftis, of the Loftis Heating and Plumbing company, that "certain parties" attempted to draw him into a combine to "fix" prices of plumbing bids on schools to be erected from bond funds will begin at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at the school administration building, it was announced Wednesday night by Roy D. Warren, commissioner from the tenth ward, who is acting chairman of the special probing committee.

Mr. Warren declared the probe would be a sweeping one in an effort to ascertain whether the board of education was a victim of a ring of contractors who formed a coalition for the purpose of raising cost of school construction. He invited all master plumbers and plumbing contractors to attend the session.

On two occasions Mr. Loftis said that he had declined to meet with certain interests, which he has not yet named "for the purpose of making some money."

Will Disclose Names.

When pressed for the identity of those who approached him, Mr. Loftis declared that if a committee was named, he would disclose the identity of those who communicated with him. Mr. Loftis said he would tell who approached him if he would name an investigating committee, and we have complied with his stipulation, Mr. Warren said.

ALSTON ELECTED HEAD OF CHAMBER

Prominent Attorney Succeeds Milton Dargan, Jr., at Helm of Commerce Organization.

Philip H. Alston, prominent attorney, Wednesday afternoon was elected president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, to serve for 1929, succeeding Milton Dargan, Jr., who will go out of office on January 1.

The board of directors of the chamber of commerce congratulated Mr. Dargan upon the close of a most successful and harmonious administration, and he in turn pledged his efforts to give every possible aid to his successor.

Other officers elected by the directors were: Horace Russell, Frank L. Butler and Gregory C. Bowden, vice presidents; and Henry W. Davis, vice president of the Atlanta and Lowry National bank, treasurer. Mr. Russell has been a vice president for the past year, while Mr. Davis has served as treasurer for 16 years.

Barker Retained in Office.

The directors cast a vote of confidence in Benjamin S. Barker, executive vice president and secretary, who continues in office. He is also a director of the chamber.

The report of the recent election committee, showing that more than 1,200 ballots had been cast by members of the chamber for the election was also presented.

WEST QUIZZED ABOUT UTILITY CONNECTIONS

Cabinet Appointee Target of Searching Inquiry Before Senate Committee on Lands.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER, United News Staff Correspondent.

Washington, December 12.—After toiling for 35 years in a slow climb up the political ladder, Secretary of Interior Roy O. West has discovered he must pay a dear price now that he has achieved his life ambition to sit in the president's cabinet.

The senate public lands committee, including Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Teapot Dome fame—is investigating his fitness to hold the cabinet office to which President Coolidge recently appointed him. He was put through severe questioning covering the personal financial affairs and his alleged relations with the Insull utility interests.

"I think the committee will recommend his rejection," one prominent member of the committee predicted privately. Many others, however, believe the senate will approve the appointment, regardless of what the committee recommends. West is now serving under a recess appointment and even if the senate rejects him he may, under this commission, hold office until March 4. Washington expects that Hoover will appoint some other person regardless of what happens to West in this fight.

Wanted Honor.

Why West should have accepted this appointment under such circumstances, knowing he would face a fight in the senate, has puzzled some. But it was natural he should want the honor. He has been doing labor in the political vineyard of Illinois since 1893 when he was assistant county attorney. He worked slowly by earnest plodding from one political office to another, finally becoming secretary of the republican national committee and later republican national committeeman from Illinois. He had reason to believe he would not have opportunity to run for the senate. A cabinet appointment was therefore the natural object of his ambition.

A cabinet office is a pretty big man in Washington. He would be free with a great beautiful limousine and a uniformed chauffeur. He sits in a magnificent office with many secretaries and clerks to answer the numerous push buttons on his desk. He is invited to speak at impressive banquets. His wife and daughters find their names in the columns of the morning newspapers. When he rides down the street traffic officers hastily turn the semaphores to admit him. A cabinet officer is quite an important man here.

So it was natural that Roy O. West

ADAIR CO. MISUSED BONDS, IS CHARGE

U. S. Accountant Says That Bonds Were Employed To Buy Stock in Adair Mortgage Co.

Chickasaw, Ga., December 12.—(AP) A charge that the bankrupt Adair Realty and Trust company of Atlanta used bonds it had for sale for the purpose of purchasing stock in the Adair Realty and Mortgage company of New York and St. Louis and that other bonds were pledged banks as security for loans made in federal court here today by C. E. Cagle, government accountant, testifying in a trial of four officers of the former company for fraud in the use of the mails.

The session was curtailed to three hours in the afternoon when Judge Samuel H. Sibbey recessed court this morning to allow Marion Smith, one of the attorneys for the defense, to return to visit four members of his family stricken with influenza and pneumonia.

Evans Erwin Stricken.

The epidemic of influenza took further toll this afternoon when Evans Erwin, one of the defendants, was ordered to bed by his physician. The other defendants, Forrest Adair, Sr., Forrest Adair, Jr., and Frank Adair, were present, and Erwin, through his attorney, waived his presence.

Cagle, who occupied the stand practically all of yesterday, went on today to describe the manner in which he said the books showed that the Adairs had gained possession of the stock of the New York and St. Louis company.

"The books do not show that bonds were used to purchase the stock," Cagle said, "they merely stated that they were miscellaneous deductions held by the company for safe-keeping."

"Deductions" Taken Off.

November 30, 1926, the witness said, these "miscellaneous deductions" were taken off and $450,000 worth of second mortgage bonds of the Pennsylvania Holding company of Philadelphia, the Adair Pennsylvania office, substituted, and on the same day these gave way to some bonds of the Whitfield estates.

Cagle also testified that bonds of the William N. Young hotel, Little Rock, Ark.; the Tampa Terrace hotel

Bolivian Reply To League Note Blames Paraguay

BANK RESOURCES NOW BIGGEST EVER, SAYS U. S. OFFICIAL

Peace or War Depends on Alleged "Aggressor State," League of Nations Told.

FULL REPARATION DEMANDED IN NOTE

Proposal for Commission of Inquiry Rejected; Bolivia Boils With Patriotic Preparations.

Washington, December 12.—(AP) While reporting the greatest resources of the country's national banks on record, Comptroller of the Currency Pole today urged congress to retain the laws designed to safeguard national banks from excessive taxation.

The defeat of several pending legislative proposals which he believes would tend to weaken existing statutes was asked by the comptroller. He declared that the bills to amend the present laws relating to taxation of national banking associations by states would remove safeguards which have existed for 64 years prohibiting states from taxing national bank stock at higher rates than other capital.

On October 2, last, Mr. Pole reported the resources of 7,676 national banks aggregated $28,925,480,000, the greatest ever recorded and exceeding by $1,711,656,000 the resources reported a year ago. Total deposits amounted to $22,005,311,000, an increase of $707,000,000 during the year. His report also showed that at the end of October there were 7,707 national banks in existence, 125 less than a year ago.

Pole recommended the enactment of a law to prohibit the paying in of capital before the organization had been approved by the comptroller. He also asked that it be made a criminal offense to make, circulate or publish a false report concerning any national bank or member of the federal reserve system which might tend to cause general withdrawal of funds or otherwise injure its business.

In all banks that reported to the comptroller during the year individual deposits amounted to $33,244,638,000 including savings deposits and time certificates totaling $23,132,575,000. The total capital and surplus was $4,054,46 and the per capita savings deposit amounted to $214.23.

The report said that 15,078 state (commercial) banks had total resources of $16,291,003,000 with total deposits of $12,725,135,000; that 1,633 loan and trust companies had total resources of $10,874,508,000 and 616 mutual savings banks had total resources of $8,672,825,000.

LOWDEN, IN LETTER, ASKS FAIR TRIAL FOR HOOVER PLAN

Chicago, December 12.—(AP) Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois and candidate for the republican nomination at the Chicago convention last June, bespeaks "wholehearted support" for President-elect Herbert Hoover's farm relief program today in a letter read before the convention of the American Farm Bureau's federation.

It was Mr. Lowden's first public comment since the election of Mr. Hoover, contained in a letter to Earl C. Smith, president of the Illinois Agricultural association.

North Boulevard League To Light Its Living Tree

FOUR CIVIC BODIES HAVE ENDORSED MOVEMENT

BY ELMO HAMBY.

Joining in with other civic leagues of Atlanta who have aligned themselves with The Constitution and the Camp Fire Girls in the "Light Your Living Trees" movement for this Christmas season, the North Boulevard Park Civic League has adopted resolutions officially calling upon every member to light his lawn trees and shrubbery for the Yuletide.

This announcement was made Wednesday by E. Stevens, president of the Northeastern Inter-Civic league, composing a number of civic clubs of the northeastern section. Mr. Stevens, a member of the Morningside Civic league and past president of that organization, which previously has joined the movement, introduced the idea to the North Boulevard Park league at its regular meeting and it was unanimously adopted.

Civic clubs which so far have pledged themselves enthusiastically to the "Light Your Living Trees" movement of The Constitution and the Camp Fire Girls are: Morningside Civic league, North Druid Hills Civic league, North Boulevard Park Civic league, Scores Atlanta have telephoned their names to the Christmas Tree editor of The Constitution. Those who are lighting their trees for the first time are enthusiastic over the extreme beauty and the cheer produced by the brilliant little lights strung among the branches of a living tree, and all express surprise over the inexpensiveness of the idea.

The following telephoned their names to the Christmas Tree editor Wednesday, and signified their intention of having lighted living trees at Christmas time. H. S. Entwistle, 815 Cumberland road, Morningside Park. Mrs. F. S. Bachler, 1036 Oxford road. Mrs. J. R. Pierce, 2017 Gordon road.

The Constitution wants the names of all who are going to light living trees this Christmas. Telephone them to the Christmas Tree editor at WAlnut 6565.

COVINGTON TO LIGHT MUNICIPAL MAGNOLIAS.

Covington, Ga., December 12.—(Special.)—The two magnificent magnolia trees that adorn the public square park in Covington again will be festively decorated with lights during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. W. C. Clark, although ill for several months, still has her interest in Covington, and sent a message to city council suggesting that the municipal Christmas tree which so beautifully decorated our central park last year be repeated this Yuletide.

Council appointed Councilmen C. E. Estes, Rucker Ginn and P. J. Rogers to act with Mrs. Clark, so Covington will again have her living Christmas tree with flashing lights among the leaves of our two splendid magnolias.

HOOVER LEAVES PACIFIC COAST FOR ARGENTINA

President-Elect Marvels at Scenic Wonders as Train Crosses Cordilleras Range.

PARTY IS HEADED FOR BUENOS AIRES

Local Dignitaries Greet Distinguished Visitor as Special Train Stops Briefly at Stations.

Mendoza, Argentina, December 12.—(AP) President-elect Hoover this evening made his first visit to an Argentine city, stopping here for an hour en route from Santiago, Chile, to Buenos Aires.

The special train on which his party traveled had been cheered by crowds assembled at railroad stations in every town and village along the way. When the special pulled in here at 7 p. m. a throng of more than 15,000 persons jostled one another in and around the station, cheering and applauding.

The governor of the province of Borzani with his official staff and also the mayor and officials of the municipality gave Mr. Hoover a warm greeting at the station.

The Hoover party had spent a night on the train at Los Andes that they might see the spectacular scenery of the Cordilleras by daylight. This morning Alvin Hoover, younger son of the president-elect, rode on the electric locomotive which pulled the special train over the Andean divide.

His father declined a similar invitation the better to appreciate the majestic panorama as seen from his private car.

Misses Famous Statue.

Because of snow storms and clouds as the train crossed the frontier at the highest point of the railroad, Mr. Hoover was unable to see the famous statue of Christ of the Andes, the monument to peace between Chile and Argentina.

In the late afternoon the train ran out of the almost uninhabited mountain region into the lower levels of the foothill country where brief pauses were made at the little towns so that the assembled people might catch a momentary glimpse of the president-elect.

RAYMOND WEAVER FOUND NOT GUILTY

Slayer of Tom C. Davis Tells Jury Victim Threatened Him; Self Defense Claimed.

After more than three hours' deliberation a Fulton county superior court jury Wednesday night found Raymond L. Weaver not guilty of murder in the fatal stabbing of Tom C. Davis, street car motorman, November 11. The case went to the jurors at about 6 o'clock and the verdict of "Not guilty" was returned at about 9:30 o'clock. The trial occupied the entire day in Judge G. H. Howard's division.

Weaver, an insurance salesman of a Josephine street address, claimed that he stabbed Davis in self-defense, and that the victim had threatened his life on previous occasions.

Tells of Poker Game.

W. E. Nall, at whose house the slaying occurred, said that a friendly poker game was going on when Weaver came in. Weaver had only $12.50, and Davis, who had lost $70 in the game, took exception and cursed Weaver, saying that he should be thrown out. Nall said.

Nall told the jury that he ordered Weaver and Davis to get out of the house if they were going to fight, and that Davis started out, followed by Weaver. At the doorway several blows were exchanged, and Davis' throat was slashed by Weaver, the wounded man staggering away and falling down the steps, Nall said. Davis died in a few minutes, his jugular vein having been severed.

Other men who were present at the poker game gave similar testimony. The defense introduced two witnesses, George Wiley and B. W. Padgett, who testified that Davis was a man of violent disposition and frequently was involved in disputes.

Weaver's Defense.

Weaver made a lengthy statement to the jury, at times becoming very emotional in his delivery. He told of his alleged fear of Davis, and said that he believed that Davis was about to kill him when he used his knife. Weaver said that Davis had previously threatened his life, and that Davis struck him first.

Mrs. Weaver and their son, Ossie Weaver, 15, were at Weaver's side all during the trial.

Weaver was defended by Reuben A. Garland and W. A. Watkins, while Assistant Solicitor-General John H. Hudson conducted the prosecution.

King's Condition Is 'Satisfactory' After Operations

PLOT DISCLOSURE BRINGS SEDULOUS GUARD FOR HOOVER

Late Bulletin From Royal Bedside Indicates That Patient Is at Least Holding His Own.

HOPES OF BRITISH RAPIDLY RISING

Surgeons Drain Fluid From Base of Lung in Two Operations; Maintains Strength.

London, December 12.—(Thurs.)—(AP) A special edition of the Daily Express, issued at 4:40 a. m. today, said that King George's condition continued satisfactory.

London, December 12.—(AP) It was stated officially at Buckingham palace at 11:30 o'clock tonight that the condition of the king so far continues satisfactory.

The physicians, with the exception of Sir Stanley, who will remain as usual all night at the palace, left shortly before this statement was given out.

With the heir to the throne once more at home, the finest surgeons of the kingdom today made two desperate efforts to save the life of King George. They performed two successful operations, one this morning and another more serious tonight.

The condition of his majesty was considered satisfactory and the hopes of his people for his recovery are rapidly rising from the despondency of the past two critical days.

Lung Is Punctured.

This morning a puncture was made to remove some of the pleural fluid around the base of the right lung. It was indicated that further drainage would be required. The bulletin which was issued hours after the operation in the king's condition noted this morning is maintained. Some purulent fluid around the base of the right lung has been removed by puncture this morning and further drainage will be necessary.

Since last Friday the physicians have been exploring by needle and X-ray for the effusion. The infection which had been localized in the right lung spread generally throughout the body and this was what gave rise to the grave anxiety of the last 48 hours. The king's rally last night just before the Prince of Wales completed his journey from Africa followed what doctors described as an almost miraculous return to localized infection instead of the general infection.

Another Serious Operation.

The doctors seized the opportunity to begin aggressive treatment, with the morning operation successful. Another was performed this evening, after which a bulletin was issued saying, "An operation on the king for drainage of the right side of the chest has been successfully performed this evening. The condition of his majesty is satisfactory."

The fact that the king has been able to maintain his strength despite the ravages of the disease during the past three weeks was one of the principal contributing factors to the success of the operation, which could not have been carried out without the helpful determination of the king to do everything possible to get well.

The operation this evening was performed by Sir Hugh Riggby, honorary

Auto Busses To Take Tech Boys to Bowl

Nine Coaches Will Carry 180 Men; Round Trip $60.

BY BEN COTHMAN.

Collegiate youth of the city, whose spirit is most time effervescent and bubbly as carbonated water, is doing just as that old trite saying says youth will do, and finding a way to California to be on hand when Tech meets the Golden Bear.

There seems, in fact, to be several ways. Of course, there'll be any number of these unsightly flocks of earlier vintage than your grandmother, setting out bravely on the long trek to California. And, too, some of the boys will put on the hitch-hiking act; some of the people riding the special train may display a strange propensity to have their berth made down night and day. There has even been talk of the boys banding them-

K. C. HATCHET WOMAN CITED TO GRAND JURY

Will Give Reason for 'Joint'
Smashing That Roused City.

Kansas City, December 12.—(P)—From a sick bed today Mrs. Maud Wilson viewed with satisfaction the far-reaching results of her angry descent with a hatchet upon the neighborhood saloon where she asserted liquor had been dispensed to her husband and 18-year-old daughter, Iris. The latter day Carrie Nation was suffering from nervous illness from the excitement and publicity following her "dry" raid Monday, but she believed she had surpassed her goal. The saloon, in which she left a broad trail of broken glassware, had gone out of business, and the building was for rent.

Furthermore she now believes she will get action from federal and city prohibition forces from whom she said she was unable to get any response before she took matters into her own hands.

Mrs. Wilson, her husband and daughter have been ordered to appear before the county grand jury next week to testify regarding the saloon's activities, and her charge that she saw policemen enter and loiter about the place. Investigators from the prosecutor's office inquired into the reported sale or gift of liquor to minors at the saloon. Miss Wilson declared that "Jiggs" Shindel, alleged operator, had given her a half pint of corn liquor.

Meanwhile the storm of charges and counter charges that broke between the federal and local authorities and the prosecutor's office regarding responsibility for "wide open" liquor selling here continued in full fury.

N. R. HIGH MOOR TO SPEAK TONIGHT AT CREDIT MEETING

The Rev. N. R. High Moor, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, will address the regular meeting of the Atlanta Association of Credit Men at 6:30 o'clock tonight, in the Atlanta Athletic club. His talk will be on "Ethics of Cooperation."

Featuring the entertainment program will be Homer R. Hulse, member of the Atlanta Society of Magicians, and Richard A. von Calio, accordionist of the Salvation Army. F. B. Ramsey is in charge of the program.

Americus, Ga., December 12.—(Special.)—In a special election in Sumter county Wednesday, Robert L. Maynard, of Americus, was elected to succeed the late A. E. Hines as representative in the general assembly. Others in the race were O. C. Johnson, Peter F. Bahnsen and J. W. McDonald.

Decatur Travelers Select W. C. Lovejoy Association Leader

Decatur, Ga., December 12.—(Special.)—W. C. Lovejoy was elected president of Post P. of Decatur Travelers' Protective association, at a recent meeting.

Other officers chosen were J. B. Overton, first vice president; W. R. Metcalf, second vice president; J. W. Summerour, third vice president; and Albert J. Woodruff, secretary and treasurer. The directors are J. G. Ad-day, chairman; J. W. Summerour, John M. Bell, C. Eugene Allen, Charles A. Matthews and P. H. Jeter. George M. Napier was appointed attorney and Dr. A. J. Moncrief, pastor of the First Baptist church, Decatur, chaplain.

Committee chairmen named, were: William Woodruff, publicity; John L. Respass, legislative; Robert W. Ingram, good roads; E. N. Chapman, waterways; O. B. McMichael, railroads; E. A. Stead, hotels; A. R. Almon, employment, and G. K. Christian, membership.

RATE HIKE GRANTED C. of Ga. May Increase Com- mutation Fares.

The state public service commission Thursday authorized the Central of Georgia railroad to increase commutation rates 20 per cent on suburban trains operated between Atlanta and Jonesboro and Egypt and Savannah. ## FORMER CONDELE, GA. MAN KILLS HIMSELF

Tampa, Fla., December 12.—(P)—Edward L. Harwell, 45, formerly of Condele, Ga., took his life with a revolver while lying in bed at his home here early today. He was recovering from minor injuries received in an automobile accident at Fort Myers three days ago.

No reason could be given by members of his family for the act, but they expressed an opinion that he might have received some cerebral injury that affected his mind. Death was due to self-inflicted wounds, according to J. M. Cathcart, justice of the peace, after viewing the body.

AIR MAIL PILOT RISKY JOB, NEW TELLS GIRL

Miss Meyer, of New Orleans,
Sends Application to War Department.

Washington, December 12.—(AP)—Miss C. N. Meyer, of New Orleans, wants to become an air mail pilot, and Postmaster General New has sent her instructions about how to go about it.

She applied to the war department and the letter was referred to Mr. New. He found that she had the necessary qualifications necessary before one is appointed an air mail pilot, and had probably overlooked the hazardous undertaking surrounding the duties of such a pilot.

So he explained to her by letter that the postoffice department does not actually operate the air mail service.

ATLANTA OFFICER PRAISES SARGON

Feels Like It Was Made
Specially for His Case;
Believes It Prevented Complete Breakdown.

"I was on the verge of a complete nervous and physical breakdown and it was one of the luckiest days of my life when I decided to try Sargon for my trouble."

"I consider what this medicine has done for me to be worth more than a fortune. I was awfully run down when I began taking Sargon. My nerves were on edge and I was just dragging through life. The life of a policeman is hard enough when one is in good health and feeling his best, and I tell you I have seen the time when it was an effort for me to pull through the day. I would go home so tired at night that I did not want to move. I did not want to go anywhere—did not have any energy at all."

Hundred Per Cent Better.

"I suffered a great deal with my back and kidneys. At times I felt like my back would break in two. I don't know what it is, but there is something about Sargon that does the work. Today I am 100 per cent better than I was when I began the treatment. It just seems like Sargon was made specially for my case, and I honestly believe that it has prevented a complete breakdown. I can go out on my beat now feeling fine, full of pep and energy. My nerves are fine and I make no difference about the traffic gets I am able to take care of it. The whole day's work does not tire me so much now as an hour used to. I have a fine appetite and I am no trouble to digest everything I eat."

"Yes, sir, I am glad to say my health is being restored and I want to tell everybody about Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills."

Almost everybody in Atlanta knows Officer W. A. McKinney, who is a familiar figure in the streets, as he directs the complex streams of traffic at Peachtree street and Ponce de Leon avenue. Officer McKinney volunteered the above remarks today as a result of his Sargon treatment and is one of many well-known Atlanta people who have put Sargon to the test and found new health and vigor as a result.

Sargon can be obtained from the Jacobs Pharmacy Company stores all over Atlanta. A special representative of the Sargon Laboratories can be seen at Jacobs' main store, 6 and 8 Marietta street, where he will gladly explain the therapeutic action of Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills to all who are interested.—(adv.)

John Walker, Former Banker, Finds God in Chatham Jail

Accused Ex-Church Leader Taken to Macon
Finds God in Chatham Jail

Macon, Ga., December 12.—(AP)—Although a prominent churchman for years, John D. Walker "found God" while in the Chatham county jail.

The former president of the chain of Georgia banks made the assertion while in a cell at the Bibb county jail, where he had been placed Wednesday, having been brought here from Savannah to answer a federal indictment charging him with the larceny of $9,000 of the city of Sparta sinking fund bonds.

Prior to his disappearance shortly before his string of banks crashed, Walker was a college trustee, member of the governor's staff, mayor of the city of Sparta, and a leading church worker in his community, yet from his cell Wednesday night he issued the statement that "I did not find God until I was in the Chatham county jail at Savannah."

Walker charged that former associates in his banking business "conspired against" him, but declared that he had not the slightest doubt as to his vindication and "the vindication of my wife in New York."

Returning to religion, Walker termed God "the only true friend of a poor man in this careless world."

Federal officers expressed the belief that Walker would be tried here at the May term of the federal court.

A solemn campaign mass was celebrated here to the memory of those who fell in the clash at Port Vanguard.

A communication from the Argentine Patriotic League, addressed to President Siles, and requesting that Bolivia endeavor to avoid war, was published here, together with the answer to the chief executive, in which he begged the Argentine organization to consider the far-reaching effects of the Paraguayan "aggression."

DELEGATES RESUME PLACE IN PAN-AM MEET.
Washington, December 12.—(AP)—Scarcely 24 hours after her withdrawal from the Pan-American conference on arbitration and conciliation, Bolivia today signified her desire to return to the party so that her dispute with Paraguay would not interfere with the body's efforts to ban war from the Americas.

The inadvisability of withdrawing had been conveyed to the Bolivian government by the United States, while her neighbor Latin American

The state department through two channels presented views to the Bolivian government against withdrawal. Secretary Kellogg personally urged the Bolivian minister here to advise his nation to reconsider its action.

PLOT BRINGS STRICT GUARD FOR HOOVER

A spy of ammunition and counterfeit notes.

As the police searched, two young women, both under 18, entered the room. One was Scarzo's sister, the other his fiancée. They protested amazement at Scarzo's activities out in their hands, police said, were supplies of anarchistic literature.

All three were arrested. On information in papers they found in Scarzo's room, police sent out an alarm. "Cefeirino Castro, a Spanish chauffeur. It was hinted that other arrests were imminent."

No time was lost in acting on the deductions the police drew from their discoveries in Scarzo's room: that there was a plot against the life of the American president-elect. Guards were rushed from military and police barracks here and at other available points to guard every spot along the trans-Andes railway that might furnish a rendezvous for a wrecking gang of radicals. President Irigoyen ordered that no precaution be neglected.

Hoover is due here Thursday evening. By that time, it is assured, every known radical in the city will be under arrest or under close surveillance.

principal development in the many-sided Arnold Rothstein case.

It was authoritatively learned at city hall that Mayor Walker is bringing pressure to bear to have Commissioner Joseph Warren, who has not yet resigned, succeeded on Saturday by Grover Whalen, the city's official greaser.

Warren had no comment to make beyond saying that he had not tendered his resignation. He remarked that today he completed 20 months as police commissioner. His predecessor, George V. McLaughlin, held office only a little more than 15 months, resigning to re-enter business.

It would be a large financial sacrifice to Whalen, who is general manager of the John Wamaker store here, to take the commissionership, but there was a general feeling that the mayor would prevail upon him to do so as a matter of civic duty.

Since Rothstein was killed more than a month ago the police department has been criticized for apparent inaction in its investigation of the case and on several occasions, the most serious yesterday, the mayor summoned Commissioner Warren to his office to demand results. Though the case is close personal friends of the mayor have made no secret of his dissatisfaction with the handling of the Rothstein case.

ESCAPED PRISONERS BEING RETURNED TO FEDERAL PRISON

Birmingham, Ala., December 12.—(P)—George Albert Groves and Frank Carter, escaped prisoners from the West Virginia federal penitentiary, were en route today to the federal prison at Atlanta to serve the remainder of their terms. They were in custody of M. B. Aaron, deputy marshal.

The two were arrested at Bessemer, Ala., several days ago by officers searching for an automobile alleged to have been stolen in West Virginia. They were charged with violation of the interstate commerce act, but the charge was not pressed.

Mr. Warren said, "If there has been an effort at price fixing, the people of Atlanta should know it. It is our committee to use every facility and power at our command to delve into the complaints with a view of fixing responsibility."

"We are asking all master plumbers, plumbing contractors or any others who may know anything about the charges to appear at the committee. It is a serious charge. To my mind it is a reflection on every honest dealer in Atlanta, and should be cleared up. Any individual might throw light on the situation will be welcomed by the committee."

Other members of the probing body are George W. Power, president of the board of education, and W. W. Gaines, commissioner from the third ward.

Only the plumbing angle will be considered at the session Friday afternoon, Mr. Warren said, but allegations of restriction of specifications so that certain interests "enjoyed" practically a monopoly also will be inquired into later.

Author of Resolution.

Mr. Warren was author of the resolution creating the probing committee at the regular December meeting of the board of education Tuesday afternoon.

At the same time he offered resolutions requesting the board to prohibit charges that restriction of marble to products of Georgia had cost the city approximately $50,000 on buildings erected from the bond funds; another to investigate outlawing "Jumbo" brick, a clay product manufactured at Macon, and a third to investigate restrictions of blower systems used in connection with heating plants installed in the new schools.

These latter matters will be considered at meetings of the same committee to be held later.

PLANTS TO UTILIZE
WASTE OF FARMS
URGED BY SCHALL

Washington, December 12.—(P)—Senator Schall, republican, Minnesota, explaining his proposal for construction of demonstrating plants to utilize waste products of farm lands, said today that experiments made by the bureau of standards have proved the practicability of the plan.

One of the plants which would be erected near Little Rock, Ark., at a cost of $1,000,000, would produce pulp and paper from rice straw. Such paper, he said, is of "excellent" quality and makes good newsprint.

Other plants for which a total of $5,500,000 would be appropriated would produce pulp, paper, and board, xylol and potato alcohol. Xylol is used as a substitute for glucose.

The paper, he said, would be produced by a chemical process rather than by crushing required in pulp manufacture.

Another Trail Blazer presentation will greet the listeners when the "Farm and Home Hour" is resumed in the N. B. C. Chicago studios, after which a nationally prominent farm authority will speak. "At the Moving Picture Ball," played by the Trail Blazers, will complete the program.

The nationally famous soprano, Adele Vasa, and the tenor, Oliver Smith, will be featured during the Sonora hour at 8 o'clock tonight on the Columbia chain, as well as the popular piano duo, Muriel Pollock and Constantine Merina.

Miss Vasa and Mr. Smith will sing a duet from the greatest of all love stories, "Romeo and Juliet," the opera of Gounod, which embraces a wealth of flowing, beautiful melody. As a solo Miss Vasa will give "Addio del Passato" from "La Traviata."

A special two-piano arrangement of "Dancing Tambourine" has been made for the popular piano team of Muriel Pollock and Constantine Merina, and this will be played during the Sonora hour. Another two-piano number is the Rachmaninoff Waltz from Suite No. 2.

The Sonora Symphony orchestra will open the hour with one of its most beautiful compositions, a composition of true comic spirit, "Gollivog's Cake Walk."

Light Showers
Seen for Today
By Weatherman

Light showers accompanied by generally cloudy conditions and a slight temperature rise will be on the weather for today, according to the prediction of C. F. von Herrmann, head of the local United States weather bureau.

Dampness predicted for Wednesday came a little earlier in the day than anticipated and a total of up to 32 inches of rain was recorded at the bureau Wednesday morning. More of the same today will help to clear out the smoky atmosphere and be helpful from a health standpoint, in the opinion of Mr. von Herrmann.

The temperature Wednesday ranged from a minimum of 42 in the morning up to 52 later in the day. A slight increase in these figures is expected today. The range will be from 46 up to about 60, the weatherman thinks.

"Ceasing to Care" is the name of the song written specially for Melton, which the tenor will sing in the weekly broadcast by the Seiberling Singers over WSB and the N. B. C. system at 8 o'clock tonight.

Another tenor solo will be heard in the same program—Toselli's "Serenade." The entracte from Victor Herbert's "Naughty Marietta," and an old minstrel song, "Susan Jane," have been specially arranged for the full quartet of Seiberling Singers.

The two-piano team, Ohman and Arden, will again be heard in a display of their technical skill, offering this week the appropriate title, "Try and Play It."

The complete details follow:

Wendell Hall, known as the "red-headed music maker," composer of "It Ain't Goin' to Rain No More" and numerous other hits, will be heard with Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians from 11 o'clock to midnight (Atlanta time) tonight through the station.

John de Reske, a fortunate young man who has been an unusually good voice for radio work, but he is one-half of the Hoover Honeycombers, sharing Jessica Dragonette's role on Thursday nights, when she is the other honeycomber. The Hoover program comes over WSB and the N. B. C. system at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

"March of the Dwarfs," from Grieg's "Peer Gynt," to be played by the Halcyon 8-tune string ensemble, and Cui's "Oriental" as a violin solo are featured highlights of the same program.

Halsey, Stuart's "Old Counsellor" will again officiate as host, and place at the disposal of radio listeners his extensive knowledge of investment securities and financial matters.

A musical program of unusual merit and farm information of worth will greet listeners to Monday's "Farm and Home Hour." The program will be put on the air at noon over WSB from the National Broadcasting company's Chicago studios.

The Trail Blazer orchestra, after the opening number, "Spirit of Progress March," will present an unusual melody with an unusual name, "Hejre Kat," and Constantine Merina, the yodeler, will follow with "Mama, Let Rosie Alone." The Homesteaders will tell the latest news of the day and give a review of the latest news on farm and what has been gleaned from all over the country. The Trail Blazer Twins will harmonize on "When the Sun Goes Down Again."

Information concerning farm problems will be broadcast by the United States department of agriculture during its 15-minute program from the Washington studios of the National Broadcasting company.

Another Trail Blazer presentation will greet the listeners when the "Farm and Home Hour" is resumed in the N. B. C. Chicago studios, after which a nationally prominent farm authority will speak. "At the Moving Picture Ball," played by the Trail Blazers, will complete the program.

The nationally famous soprano, Adele Vasa, and the tenor, Oliver Smith, will be featured during the Sonora hour at 8 o'clock tonight on the Columbia chain, as well as the popular piano duo, Muriel Pollock and Constantine Merina.

Miss Vasa and Mr. Smith will sing a duet from the greatest of all love stories, "Romeo and Juliet," the opera of Gounod, which embraces a wealth of flowing, beautiful melody. As a solo Miss Vasa will give "Addio del Passato" from "La Traviata."

A special two-piano arrangement of "Dancing Tambourine" has been made for the popular piano team of Muriel Pollock and Constantine Merina, and this will be played during the Sonora hour. Another two-piano number is the Rachmaninoff Waltz from Suite No. 2.

The Sonora Symphony orchestra will open the hour with one of its most beautiful compositions, a composition of true comic spirit, "Gollivog's Cake Walk."

The Sonora hour will be completed with other selections by the Symphony orchestra, and with popular or

MAN IS BURNED TO DEATH IN CELL IN CAROLINA JAIL

Newbern, N. C., December 12.—(P)—Arthur Merrill, 21, of Newbern, was burned to death tonight in a cell of the Newbern jail, according to word received here.

The fire was said to have been started by Merrill, who had been incarcerated on a charge of being drunk. The Moorehead city fire department was called to aid in fighting the blaze which for a time threatened the court house and the nearby school building.

Horace Russell, Executive Vice President Barker and Treasurer Henry W. Davis are ex-officio members of the board. Mr. Dargan, as retiring president, is an honorary director. Baxter Maddox becomes a director for one year as immediate past president of the junior chamber of commerce.

Other honorary or ex-officio directors will be L. N. Hagins, mayor of Atlanta; Walter B. Stewart and George M. Hope, Fulton county commissioners, and the incoming presidents of the junior chamber and the woman's division.

To Take Office January 1.

The new officers and directors will take office on January 1, and will formally be installed at the next annual dinner of the chamber, some time in January.

President-elect Alston, in accepting the office, pointed out that in the list of directors for the coming year, 18 different business groups will be represented, and he expressed the hope that these representatives would be "contact men" between their respective groups and the chamber of commerce, for the mutual benefit of all.

He mentioned among these groups the following: department and retail store, banks, telephone company, power company, hotels, capital, education and hospitals, manufacturing, law, building materials, insurance, stocks and bonds, gasoline and oils, automobiles, real estate, credits and the city and county governments.

Senior Partner in Firm.

Philip H. Alston, the new head of the chamber of commerce, is one of the senior partners of the law firm of Alston, Alston, Foster & Maise. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama and has been a resident of Atlanta for 25 years. Mr. Alston and his brother, Robert C. Alston, were born and reared at Clayton, Barbour county, Alabama, where their father, Judge A. H. Alston, was one of the most widely known jurists of his state.

Mr. Alston has been active in civic affairs for years, though refraining from active participation in politics. He has served on the city bond commission and for several years has given his services as attorney for the chamber of commerce, the Atlanta Forward Commission and the industrial bureau of the chamber. He has been a director of the chamber for several years and a vice president for the past two years. He is a member of the Capital City and Piedmont Driving clubs and the Sigma Nu fraternity.

New Directors Named.

The election added to the board of directors five well known Atlantans who had not previously served in that capacity. They are Dr. Harvey W. Cox, president of Emory and one of the south's leading educators; Benjamin Elsas, president of the Fulton Bag & Cotton Mills and a nationally known manufacturer; Robert R. Johnson, president of the Campbell Cellulose company and a leading representative of the fuel and building material trades; Roy LeCraw, active young civic leader, former president of the junior chamber of commerce, and chairman in 1928 of the senior chamber's membership committee; and Wiley L. Moore, a prominent figure in the real estate and oil trade and a member of the Atlanta city council.

Mr. Alston is the second attorney to be elected president of the chamber of commerce. The other was Eugene Clark, who served in 1920. Horace Russell, re-elected vice president, is also an attorney.

ATLANTA EPISCOPAL
DIOCESE IN CONFERENCE

Macon, Ga., December 12.—(AP)—The Central Convocation of the diocese of Atlanta was organized here today at a meeting of 28 clerical and lay representatives of the Protestant Episcopal church in northeastern and central Georgia.

Rev. F. Harriman Harding, of St. Stevens church, Milledgeville, was elected dean of the convocation and Rev. Gladstone Rogers, of St. James' church, Macon, was chosen as secretary and treasurer.

The diocese of Atlanta, which is the Episcopal church in the upper half of the state of Georgia, at its last council, voted to form two convocations "for discussion of mutual problems and the exchange of helpful ideas." These convocations have no legislative authority, it is announced, but are designed "to quicken spiritual activity and to create religious enthusiasm."

In accord with this purpose it was stated following today's meeting, "there predominated throughout the organizing of the Central Convocation the thought of how the Episcopal church in the diocese of Atlanta might best serve toward the establishment of the kingdom of God in the rural districts of Georgia."

An executive committee was elected to arrange a program for the next meeting of the convocation, is composed of Dean F. H. Harding, Rev. T. N. Lawrence, Rev. Gladstone Rogers, Mrs. E. B. Harrold, Mrs. Ralph Birdsey, J. P. Greenleaf and E. H. Strickland.

Rev. George Hazelhurst Harris and O. Cornwell, invited the Central Convocation to meet in the spring at Cornelia, Ga.

R. N. Clark, Jr.,
Appointed Editor
Of Harvard Paper

Richard N. Clark, Jr., 18 years old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Clark, of 772 St. Charles avenue, N. E., has been appointed editor-in-chief of the Harvard Freshman Red Book, student publication, according to word received in Atlanta Wednesday. Young Clark, who was graduated last June from Boy's High school of Atlanta, formerly was editor of The Constitution's School page, and it was on the basis of his past work in this line that the Harvard freshman executive council honored him with the appointment, it was stated.

Clark's record while a student of Boy's High was outstanding, according to H. O. Smith, principal. He was graduated with the highest scholastic standing in his class and his outside activities were equally as notable.

His scholastic record automatically made him valedictorian of his class. In addition to his class work, Clark was editor of the Harvard Freshman Red Book, the highest ranking officer. For two years he was editor of the B. H. S. "Tattle" the school publication, and also was a member of the school orchestra.

Clark entered the Harvard freshman class in September.

Bigamy Charged
In Divorce Suit Against Engineer

The charge that her husband, J. M. Cowart, a locomotive engineer, had a living wife when he married her, was made Wednesday in a divorce petition filed in Fulton superior court by Mrs. Louie Lester Cowart.

Mrs. Cowart alleges that she and Cowart were married on July 6, 1918, and after the birth of their two daughters, Gwendolyn and Hazel, she discovered that Cowart at that time had another living wife, known as Pearl Cowart. On this discovery by the plaintiff, Cowart obtained a divorce from Pearl Cowart and the plaintiff requested the defendant for the sole purpose of making legitimate the parentage of the daughters, Mrs. Cowart alleges.

The petitioner seeks to show that she was forced to separate from the defendant in January because of his alleged cruel treatment, but that she went back to him on his representations and promises. She was forced to separate from him again on December 10, when he slapped her face without cause, and twisted and sprained her wrists, forcing her to call the police for protection, Mrs. Cowart alleges.

Mrs. Cowart charges that her husband is an habitual gambler, and drinks on occasion. She asks for the custody of the two children, and for a restraining order to prevent Cowart from coming about the premises.

The petition was filed by Hooper and Hooper as attorneys for Mrs. Cowart.

Wonderful for Piles

Suffered for Years; Says
There's Only One Remedy.

John O'Leary, Buffalo, for 14 years Supervisor of the Second Ward, wants to pass the good word along.

"Take it from me," says Mr. O'Leary, "when you suffer torment with piles for many years as I did, and tried all kinds of remedies with-out any success, you'll be glad to say a good word for the only remedy that is any good."

"Peterson's Ointment rid me of piles so quickly that I was astonished. I felt somewhat pained, however, to think that I had suffered so many years before knowing what a wonderful remedy Peterson's Ointment is. Let me thank you from the bottom of my heart."—John O'Leary.

Any live druggist will tell you about Peterson's Ointment—a big box for 25 cents. Use it for old sores, rashes, itching eczema, rashes, burns, hemorrhoids, chafing and all skin diseases—there is nothing better.—(adv.)

Strategy Board Called By Cummings To Take Up Gain in Flu Death Rate

Recommendation To Curb Disease Will Be Made by Trio Named by Surgeon
General.

Washington, December 12.—(AP)—Surgeon General Cummings today called together a "board of strategy on influenza" to consider reports of the bureau of census showing an increase in the influenza death rate, and to make recommendations on steps which might be taken to curb the spread of the disease.

The board is composed of three veteran bacteriologists of the public health service—Dr. G. W. McCoy, chief of the bureau of epidemiology; Dr. W. H. Frost, officer of the service, also connected with the Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene, and Dr. J. P. Leake, public health officer, who has had extensive experience both in experimentation and actual fighting of epidemics.

The surgeon general said his board of strategy would outline a program which would be made public later. The board will issue a formal statement tomorrow.

Depends on Death Rate.
Public health officials said late today that the probable course of the influenza outbreak was "hard to prophesy," and that the seriousness of the spread will depend largely on the death rate.

Telegraphic reports to the bureau of census, the public health announced, showed 189 deaths from influenza during the week ending December 8, compared with 43 deaths in the same cities during the week ending November 3, and while the disease now spreading still appears to be in milder form than that of the 1918 epidemic, the death rate has been steadily increasing.

Officials said this increase may be partly responsible for a rise in the death rate of the country, which was 13.3 per 100,000 population for the week, compared with 11.9 for the corresponding week of 1921, but this relationship could not be established absolutely.

Estimate Is Borne Out.
The total of more than 200,000 cases for the country estimated yesterday was more than borne out by today's reports, the bureau said. The 40,510 cases are "not more than one-fifth of the cases actually existing," it was said, "indicating a real total of at least 202,550."

Reports from public health officers today showed the following number of cases: Kansas, 13,590; California, 10,296; Montana, 4,580; South Carolina, 3,145; Oregon, 1,460; Colorado, 1,936; Maine, 12; New Hampshire, 17; Massachusetts, 15; Rhode Island, 2; Connecticut, 4; New Jersey, 22; Ohio, 45; Indiana, 87; Illinois, 97; Michigan, 6; Wisconsin, 101; Minnesota, 4; Missouri, 140; North Dakota, 14; Nebraska, 364; Maryland, 10; West Virginia, 57; Virginia, 300; Georgia, 980; Florida, 17; Kentucky, 4; Tennessee, 222; Alabama, 214; Arkansas, 95; Louisiana, 36; Oklahoma, 200; Texas, 38; Idaho, 7; Wyoming, 68; New Mexico, 170; Arizona, 100; Utah, 96; Washington, 22; District of Columbia, 3, and New York city, 36.

States Do Not Report.
In the following states, the bureau announced, influenza totals are "not reportable," because these states do not require a recording of the figures: Nevada, Vermont, Pennsylvania, New York state, Iowa, Delaware, South Dakota, North Carolina, and Mississippi.

The bureau explained that the rise in deaths reported to the bureau of census has been gradual. For the week ending November 10, the 77 cities reported 39 deaths; while 68 were reported during the week ending November 17; 74 during the week ending November 24; and 174 during the week ending December 1.

EPIDEMIC SPREADS TO EAST AND SOUTH.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Apparently following lanes of travel, the influenza epidemic first noted on the Pacific coast has spread eastward and southward, causing suspension of classes at numerous colleges and public schools and the postponement of at least one southwest group meeting.

The University of Georgia and North Carolina State college and the Citadel suspended classes yesterday, while Clemson college at Calhoun, S. C., closed yesterday. The University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., suspended classes Monday. Lander college at Greenwood, S. C., also suspended as a precautionary measure.

Inability to obtain nurses was given as the reason for the suspension at the University of Georgia. Seventy-five cases of influenza were noted at the North Carolina State college while one-fourth of the 1,000 or more students at Clemson were reported ill. Following the lead of the University of Georgia, city schools of Athens, Ga., closed yesterday because of absentees suffering from influenza. Schools at High Point, N. C., where 1,300 children failed to attend classes, were temporarily closed, while at Columbia, S. C., health authorities ordered all schools closed.

More than 5,000 cases of influenza have been reported to health authorities in North Carolina. One hundred cases of the disease have been noted at Florida State college for Women at Tallahassee, officials of the institution reported. No immediate closing was contemplated, however.

Chicago College for Women at Columbia, S. C., will close Friday as the precautionary measure against influenza.

NORMAL LIVING URGED AS PREVENTIVE OF FLU

Disease of Mild Type, Says
Kennedy; University of Georgia Closes.

Announcement of the closing of the University of Georgia until January 3 as a precaution against the flu and the plea by Dr. J. P. Kennedy, city health officer of Atlanta, for the exercise of common sense in battling the disease were the principal developments in the situation Wednesday. Dr. Kennedy stressed the value of an abundance of fresh air, normal living, temperance of habits and proper care of the body.

The advice was given by Dr. Kennedy at the request of Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, who asked for a report from the city health department regarding the prevalence of the disease.

Epidemic Is Mild.
Dr. Kennedy's letter to the mayor set out that the epidemic thus far is milder than it was in 1918, and added that the death rate has not been increased appreciably. He also said the number of cases of pneumonia is about on a parity with this season of the year in Atlanta.

Mayor Ragsdale in issuing the bulletin, called on Atlantans not to be alarmed. He also asked Chief of Police James L. Beavers to strictly enforce the city ordinance forbidding spitting on sidewalks, which he said was reported to be one of the means of transmitting the disease.

Report by Dr. Kennedy.
Dr. Kennedy's report to the mayor as follows:
"Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, Dear Sir: Complying with your request for a statement of the influenza situation in Atlanta, wish to say that this disease has been quite prevalent for several weeks but has not appreciably affected our death rate. Pneumonia deaths are about in line with the usual rate for winter months. The epidemic of influenza is of a very mild type."

"I have advised against the closing of the public schools and see no good to be accomplished in this way. In my opinion the children are just as safe in the schoolrooms as they would be on the streets or in their own homes. We know very little as to how influenza is spread from person to person and no advice should be for the exercise of common sense in taking care and precaution against contracting the disease."

Very Truly,
"J. P. KENNEDY, M. D.,
"Health Officer."

Mayor's Statements.
Mayor Ragsdale's statement which he issued at the same time he released the city health officer's report follows:
"Today I asked for and received a report from Dr. J. P. Kennedy, city health officer, with respect to the prevalence of influenza. Dr. Kennedy states that while there are many cases of the disease in Atlanta, has manifested itself as a mild type and the death rate has increased but little."

"From the health officer's report I do not see cause for alarm, if every reasonable precaution is exercised. "One cause of disease spread is spitting upon the streets, and I am requesting Chief Beavers to order strict enforcement of the ordinance forbidding spitting upon the sidewalks."

Dr. Bowdon's Advice.
Plenty of fresh air and normal living habits are the two best preventatives of the influenza epidemic now abroad in Georgia, according to Dr. Joe P. Bowdon, of the state health department, who declared Wednesday that the disease is now prevalent in virtually all sections of the state.

"We want to stress the advice to persons infected that they go to bed as soon as they discover they are ill," Dr. Bowdon said. "This will serve a two-fold purpose. It will prevent further spreading of the disease and also will provide rest that is necessary to a patient fighting it."

Dr. Bowdon said all reports received thus far confirm the belief of the health department officials that the disease is mild in its effects.

"While the disease thus far unquestionably is mild in nature there is, of course, danger that it will develop into a virulent form," he said. "We want to urge the people to use common sense and to take every possible precaution. I believe the closing of schools in Fulton county will serve to check the spread in this county."

Reports received at the state health department showed that there are now 200 cases of the disease in the state, Dr. S. C. Byrd, president, announced tonight.

The prevalence of influenza caused officials of the Southern Livestock association to cancel its annual meeting scheduled to be held at Raleigh, N. C., December 15-20.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill suspended classes yesterday until after the Christmas holidays as a precautionary measure against the spread of the disease. About seventy cases were reported on the campus.

All athletic schedules slating events before Christmas were canceled. The Citadel was closed until after Christmas when accommodations for caring for additional cases of influenza became limited. With 102 cases in the college hospital, college authorities decided to halt classes.

Authorities at Anderson, S. C., decided last night to close the public schools. Approximately 800 of the 4,000 students are reported sick.

three times as many cases as were reported last week. Only a small percentage of cases are reported direct to the state health department.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA CLOSING AS PRECAUTION.

Athens, Ga., December 12.—(AP)—Classes at the University of Georgia were suspended today until January 3, as a precautionary measure against the epidemic of influenza.

Dr. Charles M. Snelling, chancellor of the university, in announcing that classes had been suspended, said there had been an increase in the number of cases among the students, and it was decided to take the action as a matter of safety.

In a statement issued from the chancellor's office after the announcement it was said that the "condition was brought about by the greatly increased number of cases since Sunday, and especially by the fact that it was impossible to get nurses. The nurse situation was really the cause of the decision today to adjourn until January 3."

The statement said while there were a number of cases among the students, only one, J. M. Stoinoff, a member of the freshman football squad, was seriously ill, as he had developed pneumonia. All others "are doing well."

Colored M. E. Church
Atlanta Conference
Opens at Atlanta

Covington, Ga., December 12.—(Special).—The Atlanta annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church (colored) opened at Grace Methodist church here Wednesday morning. Bishop Frederick P. Kenney, of Atlanta, presided.

Six ministers died during the year.

it was reported. The conference went into prayer several minutes in respect.

The conference officers are as follows: N. A. Bridges, secretary; W. B. Wood, statistician; C. W. Adams, treasurer; H. W. B. Brooks, chairman of the board of examiners; D. H. Stanton, registrar; P. Crolley, secretary of the cabinet; J. W. Queen, district superintendent of Atlanta and elder of the district. They made their reports.

The conference was welcomed by the following prominent Covington persons: Mayor A. N. Hopkins, Dr. W. T. Irvin, pastor of the First Methodist church, south; Dr. R. T. Walker, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and the following prominent colored persons: Hattie Walker, Lydia Gaither, William H. Lovelace, A. Campbell, representatives of the colored churches.

MACHINE GUNNERS
RIDDLE A SALOON;
YES, IN CHICAGO

Chicago, December 12.—(AP)—Machine gun fire from a passing automobile raked Paul Cani's saloon on North Franklin street last night. Martin Nelson, a patron, was shot through the neck and may die.

Daniel Tognotti, business agent for the Excavators' union, was blamed by Cani for the attack. Tognotti, he told police, had long been a rival for his wife's affections. He explained the shooting was a reprisal for his wounding Tognotti several months ago. At that time, police said, Tognotti refused to name his assailant.

VENABLE, PADGETT WIN AGAINST REALTY BODY

Action of Commission in Suspending 2 Men Reversed
by Court.

A verdict for the defendants, M. W. Venable, head of the Venable Realty company, and Ben R. Padgett, salesman for the firm, was returned Wednesday by a jury in Fulton superior court in the trial of an appeal from the ruling of the Georgia real estate commission in suspending Venable and Padgett.

The case involved a complaint made by Speed Brown against Venable and Padgett in the listing of Brown's home with the Venable firm for sale. Venable and Padgett denied any violation of the real estate regulations in the transaction, but were suspended by the real estate commission on August 16, Venable for 60 days and Padgett until December 31.

The finding of the jury Wednesday clears Venable and Padgett of any culpability in the matter, and reverses the finding of the real estate commission. The case was heard in Judge Virlyn B. Moore's division of Fulton superior court. Attorneys for Venable and Padgett were Thomas Howell Scott and Judge W. A. Covington, while Paul Carpenter represented the real estate commission, and Smythe Gambrell represented Brown.

EMORY GLEE CLUB TO GIVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM SUNDAY

The Emory Glee club's fourth annual Christmas carol program will be given at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, it was announced Wednesday by Dr. Malcolm H. Dewey, director.

Singing many of the well-known favorites of the Christmas season, the club will appear as a vested choir. Dr. Charles Sheldon, city organist and musical director of the First Presbyterian church, will assist the Emory singers at the organ. Mrs. Sheldon will sing as a soloist on the program.

Some of the carols which will be sung are "The Little Town of Bethlehem," "Silent Night," "Jesus Reborn," and carols of the seventeenth century. The familiar "Adeste Fideles" will be sung by a quartet composed of Emil Jabouk, Edward Kane, George Rogers and Lawrence Chaffee, all of whom are familiar to churchgoers and radio audiences.

Previous carol programs by the Emory Glee club have attracted capacity audiences to the Presbyterian church, and the event has now become an anticipated part of the Atlanta holiday season.

STATE'S DOCTORS EXAMINE HARSH,
'THRILL' SLAYER

For the second time since his incarceration in Fulton tower George Harsh, confessed slayer of Willard Smith and S. H. Meeks, tasted the fresh air-of-outdoors again Wednesday, when he was carried to the laboratories of Dr. E. C. Thrash, at 157 Forrest avenue, for examination by diagnosticians employed by the state. Harsh recently was examined by defense diagnosticians at Dr. Eskridge's sanitarium on West Peachtree. The physicians examining Harsh for the defense have practically concluded their work and are engaged in preparation of a report to the Harsh family.

Harsh's trip to Dr. Thrash's laboratories Wednesday was made under court order secured by the state. Various tests and probes are being applied to Harsh by the diagnosticians, and X-ray photographs are being used to aid in the examination.

FEE OF $5,000 SOUGHT BY SYLVAN HILLS CLUB

J. A. Smith, Figure in Perkerson Tract Investigation, Is Defendant.

A bill in equity seeking to recover $5,000 alleged to have been paid J. A. Smith by the Perkerson heirs as commission for negotiating the sale of the Perkerson tract to the city of Atlanta for park purposes was filed Wednesday in Fulton superior court by five men representing the Sylvan Hills Improvement club.

The petition of J. B. Huckleby, P. A. Lewis, H. T. Warlick, C. E. Purcell and S. C. Hays, representing the club, sets out that Smith was chairman of the club's park committee and authorized to secure an option from the heirs at a price of $1,000 an acre. Unknown to the club, Smith agreed with the Perkerson heirs to take five per cent of the total purchase price as his commission, and agreed with S. P. Cronheim and C. M. Bond to assign to them one-third of his commission if the deal was accepted by city council, according to charges in the petition.

The city having accepted the proposition, Smith received $5,000 net as his fee and, as Smith was agent of the club, acted with the backing of the club and in the name of the club, the organization believes that it, and not Smith, should receive the $5,000, the petition sets out.

Troutman & Troutman and Branch & Howard filed the suit for the petitioners. The present suit is an aftermath of the investigation conducted by city council into the sale of the property to the city.

tel. Tampa, Fla., and the Forrest Hills project near Augusta were used as collateral by the Adairs to obtain loans from banks.

Shrinkage of Bonds.
In September, 1926, the witness said, the Adairs had approximately $200,000 worth of bonds, which were subject to sale for the projects for which they were issued. By March, 1927, when the Adairs company went into involuntary bankruptcy, this amount of free bonds had been reduced to $150,000, Cagle said.

The accountant also testified that projects of Adair & Senter had received payments in excess of bond sales from the Adair Realty and Trust company. Adair & Senter was a separate corporation composed of Forrest Adair, Jr., Frank Adair and J. C. Senter. The defendants have been charged with diverting money to their own private use and pouring bond money into a general fund.

Money Officers Received.
Cagle said that the books showed that salaries, commissions, bonuses and advances the officers on trial for the years 1924, 1925, 1926, received from the Adair Realty & Trust company amounted to approximately $750,000.

He declared that advances to subsidiary corporations brought the total to more than $3,000,000. When the company became bankrupt, Cagle said, approximately $1,731,000 was owed to the Thomas Jefferson hotel at Birmingham, Ala., the Tennessee Terrace hotel at Knoxville, Tenn., and the William H. Young hotel at Little Rock, Ark.

Defense Examines Cagle.
District Attorney Hager, after more than a day of questioning the witness, turned him over to defense attorneys for examination, and Marion Smith asked Cagle how he knew how to eliminate approximately $1,200,000 from the surplus claimed by the company. Cagle said he would eliminate this item yesterday, because it was

Phillips & Crew Piano Co. Will Open Magnificent New Home This Morning

Officials of Phillips and Crew Piano company, who join with the staff organization in extending greetings to the public today on the occasion of formal opening of the well-known concern's new home at 235 Peachtree street. They are, left to right, Harvey P. Phillips, president; M. B. Robison, secretary, and Robert H. Cone, Jr., sales manager.

Coming at the height of the Christmas business season, announcement is made of formal opening today of the new Phillips & Crew Piano Co. home, at 235 Peachtree street.

Marking the latest step in progress of the store's history which covers a period of more than 60 years, the organization will present to the Atlanta public one of the most beautiful music emporiums in the south, when it throws open the doors of the institution this morning.

Splendid Display Arranged.
Occupying the foremost position on the main floor is the spacious arrangement of piano, phonograph and radio display, where products of some of the foremost musical instrument and furniture makers have been artistically arranged for public inspection. Special displays in keeping with the elegance of the company's new home have been arranged in all of the departments throughout the four-story building.

The scientifically lighted windows and comfortably fitted lobbies are outstanding features of the ground floor. The decorations and trappings of the store have been selected with taste that would command respect at a fine museum. Plaques of Bachminoff and Paderewski adorn the downstairs lobbies. A handy information booth has been constructed on the first floor for convenience of patrons.

Other features of the main floor include a series of record booths for playing the latest phonograph records requested by customers. The booths are accessible from the lobby by a corridor, passing by them and also leading to the artistic display of violins, mandolins, banjos, guitars, ukuleles, saxophones and other stringed and composed of valuations on the rent department, insurance department sales value of expirations, maps and plats and also had testified that the elimination was made because an income tax return of the company showed this to be worth nothing.

In reply to questions of Smith, Cagle said he made no investigation of the value of listings outside of the books, and that he did not know whether insurance expirations had a value, whether the rent department received fixed commissions over a fixed period of years or whether a pile of "old maps" in a basement were worth anything. He said he had just seen the latter.

Cagle denied any knowledge of a "custom" of government revenue officers to permit corporations to carry intangible assets in income tax reports at nothing, and said he knew little about that department. He also said that he didn't know whether a revenue officer made out the tax return in question.

Under further cross-examination by the defense attorney, the accountant said that each of the defendants to whom advances were made in the three years mentioned owned enough stock in the company with enough dividends due to offset the advances.

Cagle was still under cross-examination when the day's session closed. The government had announced yesterday that it expected to close its case today but was prevented by the postponement until afternoon.

Why This Simple Remedy Ends PAIN Quicker

It's a combination of reliable drugs in powder form—the formula of a prominent North Carolina druggist. And because of its simplicity, Stanback reacts on the nerve centers quicker than any other preparation.

So effective and harmless are Stanback Headache Powders that today they're a household remedy in thousands of homes. Stanback acts almost instantly and yet leaves no depressing or other bad after-effect.

For headache, neuralgia, sciatica, rheumatism and other nerve pains, as well as female pains, no remedy is so safe to take and so speedy in its results as Stanback. Your druggist will recommend it.

wind instruments. To the rear of this is the ticket booth where patrons can obtain seats to concert and dramatic programs brought to the city. Executive and auditing offices of the organization are on this floor in the rear.

The completely stocked piano, phonograph and radio department is found on the second floor, where ample space has been allowed for one of the most elaborate lines of its kind. Special display rooms have been fitted out for the various well known makes of musical instruments carried by the company. In rear of the second floor are the company's general offices and large conference rooms.

The upper floors of the building are connected with the first floor by a roomy elevator. At present the third floor is unoccupied, while on the fourth floor is the concern's active second-hand department and repair shop, where work is done on every kind of instrument by efficient repair experts.

Heads of Firm.
Executive heads of the organization include Harvey P. Phillips, president, who has managed the company for about 13 years; Robert P. McDavid, vice president; M. B. Robison, secretary; Alex C. King, Jr., treasurer, and Robert H. Cone, Jr., sales manager. In addition to the officers the board of directors includes Charles M. Marshall and Henry A. Imann.

With this array of executive ability the company has built up one of the most efficient personnel organizations in the business. Progress of the company coincides closely with that of Atlanta. It was founded in 1865, when Atlanta was just beginning to rise above the ashes and ruins to which it was leveled during the war between the states. The late H. T. Phillips and B. B. Crew were fathers of the concern that was destined to flourish into one of the leading institutions of its kind in the south.

The first site of the company was on Marietta street, just west of what is now Five Points, the location now occupied by the main store of Jacob's pharmacy. Steadily the company has selves together, hiring a box car and jolting their way across the continent.

Low Price Set.
That's all very well; those ways are tried and true but it remained for two alert young men, members of the Tech student body, to arrange a comfortable method by which one is assured of reaching California in time to be in the Rose Bowl when Tech plays California on New Year's. Not only that, but the price is one that won't be prohibitive to a college man's pocketbook, usually much slimmer than the humma skeleton you see in the county fair side show.

The Georgia-Florida Motor Lines organization was approached by the two young men—Burton Cloud and Ed Fant—and propositioned. A plan was worked out whereby nine buses will leave Atlanta on the morning of December 22, headed for Pasadena, each bus bearing 20 men.

Forty Signed Up.
Forty Tech students have signed up for this trip, which will fill two buses. Plans now are under way to have the bond are H. T. Phillips mode of transportation, which would fill up a few more buses. This means of travel isn't, however, open to Tech men alone. Those citizens of a football turn of mind and anxious to see the game on New Year's day can come along and will be welcomed.

Provided you have read this far, it is quite likely that you're interested in the highly important matter of finance. Round trip fare will be sixty dollars. That sounds rather low, but it's the price for a ride to the coast and back. Reservations have been made enabling the travelers to stop at hotels while en route for one dollar a night. It has been figured that a young college gentleman who spends his money wisely can make the trip and enjoy himself thoroughly for about a hundred dollars.

The trip out will take seven days, as it is planned to make stops at all interesting points, including a trip to the Grand Canyon, and to make the trip something of an educational one, although most of the young men about the campus at Tech believe the educational part will come when Tech takes California in hand.

Coming back the trip will be made in five days so that the young men may get back to their studies or whatever it is that young men have to get back to college for.

The Georgia-Florida Motor Lines, providing the buses and drivers, has agreed to paint the transports gold and white with "Tornado Special to the Rose Bowl" emblazoned on the sides that all the world might know just where the party is going.

It ought to be a very enjoyable trip and if you're interested you can get Burton Cloud at Hemlock 2351 and secure more information.

PROGRAM OF FINANCES ASKED BY FEDERATION

Trades Urges City Survey To Determine Needs of Departments.

Urging the advisability of making a comprehensive survey of all city departments to determine their necessities before proposing another municipal bond issue, the Atlanta Federation of Trades at a meeting Wednesday night adopted resolutions calling upon city council to submit to the people a definite program of finances before any further bond issues are offered for public approval.

The resolutions point out that future bond issue proposals should be based on definite programs carrying specific sums allotted for definite purposes, and that a general survey of the municipal departments and agencies should be made before such sums are fixed. It also was pointed out in the resolutions that the bond commission named to supervise expenditure of bond funds should also participate in the survey to determine the program of improvements to be financed by the bonds.

The federation also went on record by adopting appropriate resolutions, as urging city council to increase the amount of money available in 1929 for the support and maintenance of the public school system. These resolutions assert that the present allotment of 26 per cent of the city's revenue for school purposes is not sufficient to maintain the system without overcrowding classes and doing injury to the educational system.

In line with this attitude, the federation named a committee representing each ward in the city to cooperate with the parent-teacher organizations and the Atlanta Public School Teachers' association in seeking additional funds for school purposes in the 1929 municipal budget.

DR. J. P. KENNEDY TO SPEAK TODAY ON 'CITY'S HEALTH'

Speaking on the pertinent subject of "The City's Health" Dr. J. P. Kennedy, city health officer, will give the principal address at the regular luncheon meeting of the City club to be held at 12:30 o'clock today at the Ansley hotel.

Dr. Kennedy's address is expected to prove of even more than ordinary interest and worth in view of the current epidemic of a mild form of influenza.

At this city the Hoover party transferred to another special train which left at 8 o'clock for Buenos Aires. Late tonight Mr. Hoover was approaching the vast Argentine pampas, in crossing which he will spend most of tomorrow.

He is due to arrive in the capital at about 5 p. m. He expects to leave Buenos Aires on Sunday morning on an Argentine warship assigned to him by the government for Montevideo, Uruguay, where he will arrive late Sunday afternoon.

After spending Monday in that capital he will board the United States battleship Utah, now anchored about 20 miles off Montevideo. The next stop will be Rio Janeiro. There probably will be a visit at Havana also before he reaches the United States, although the schedule after Rio Janeiro has not been officially announced.

FARM RELIEF SESSION URGED BY FEDERATION

Question Called 'National' Issue Not of Concern Alone to Agriculture.

Chicago, December 12.—(AP)—Resolutions calling for an extra session of congress to enact farm relief legislation and tariff measures to protect surplus crop production without subsidizing agriculture were adopted today by the American Farm Bureau federation at the closing session of its tenth annual convention.

Control of agricultural surpluses was described as the "dominant economic question which faces us at the present time, a national issue not of concern alone to agriculture."

"It is recognized generally that agricultural tariffs and surplus control legislation are companion measures," the recommendation read, "exerting a long time influence. Emergency action on either measure is not sought by us since a national policy for agriculture cannot be founded on emergency treatments."

"These measures are inseparable and cannot be made major features of the second session of the seventieth congress. Both should be considered at an extra session of the seventy-first congress, which we confidently expect will be called soon after the adjournment of the seventieth. In this we are given assurance by the promise of our president-elect, who said:

"So far as my own abilities may be of service, I dedicate them to help secure prosperity and contentment in that industry wherein my forefathers were born and nearly all my family still obtain their livelihood."

Offer $100 Reward.

Mrs. E. Fitzgerald, Adelphian Founder, Passes in Texas

Macon, Ga., December 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Eugenia Fitzgerald, formerly of this city, who died in Fort Worth, Texas, Tuesday, was one of nine founders of the Adelphian society here in 1850, said to be the oldest sorority in the United States. This society later became the Alpha Delta Pi.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was the oldest graduate of Wesleyan at the time of her death. It was announced at the college today. The alumnae association had lost trace of her but when the seventy-fifth anniversary of the sorority was held here two years ago, a marble bench was placed on Wesleyan campus, on which were the names of the nine founders, including that of Mrs. Fitzgerald.

ANNOUNCING THE FORMAL OPENING

of the New Phillips & Crew Store

235 Peachtree Street, N. E.

IT is with both pride and pleasure that Phillips & Crew announce the completion of their new store at 235 Peachtree Street and its formal opening today.

Into this store has gone the experience gained in sixty-five years of musical merchandising. It is complete; the kind of a store that is a credit both to Phillips & Crew and to Atlanta. Here you will find everything musical—from the finest of Steinway Pianos down to ukulele strings. It is hoped that during the week you will take time to go through this new store. You will find it interesting.

Phillips & Crew take this opportunity of expressing their appreciation of the kindness of their friends during the past few weeks. Despite the handicap of moving into a half completed building our friends have so cheerfully put up with the unavoidable inconveniences, that we have enjoyed a normal business. To our friends who have awaited a more convenient time to make their purchases we are equally grateful.

BARBER'S ARREST NEAR IN KILLING OF HIS WIFE

Search for Memphis Man
Continues on Gulf Coast.

Memphis, Tenn., December 12.—(P)—Authorities predicted tonight that Charles S. Taylor, 52, sought in connection with the slaying of his wife, Mrs. Mary Irene Meath Taylor, whose body was found locked in a trunk yesterday, would be caught within the next few days. Search for him centered along the Gulf coast.

pressed the opinion today that Mrs. Taylor, who was 43 years old, may have been alive when she was placed in the trunk after her head had been hacked with a sharp instrument. The trunk containing the body was found in a rear room of the combination home and barbershop operated by Taylor in Buntyn, a suburb.

Mrs. Taylor was struck down and stunned when she attempted to flee the room, but did not die for several minutes after the trunk lid had been jammed down on her head and body, according to my version of the tragedy, based upon physical facts," said Davis. He said he believed she had been struck another blow on the head after being placed in the trunk.

Early in October Mrs. Taylor filed suit for divorce, alleging her husband had threatened her life, but the couple became reconciled and the suit was dismissed. Mrs. Taylor had been dead about a week when her body was found.

Radio Corporation Leaders Attend Opening of Local District Office

National and local officials of the Radio Corporation of America photographed Wednesday on the occasion of the opening of the southeastern district office here.

Left to right, they are (back row) E. A. Nicholas, manager Radiola division; J. L. Ray, vice president and general sales manager; George S. DeSousa, treasurer; Meade Brunet, manager, Radiotron division; (front row) J. J. Perry, president of General Electric Supply corporation of Atlanta and local distributor for R. C. A.; Pierre Boucheron, district manager of R. C. A. in Atlanta.

The radio industry is in its infancy and the Radio Corporation of America—pioneer in wireless communication—is making plans for tremendous expansion in 1929.

This was the gist of statements made Wednesday night by officials of R. C. A. from New York, who visited Atlanta for the opening of the southern district office of the Radio Corporation at 101 Marietta street.

Following business conferences during the day with J. J. Perry, of the General Electric Supply corporation, local R. C. A. distributor and Pierre Boucheron, manager of the southern district office, the R. C. A. national and local leaders entertained southern district distributors and retail dealers of their products at an elaborate banquet at the Biltmore hotel Wednesday night.

J. L. Ray, vice president and general sales manager of the Radio Corporation; E. A. Nicholas, manager of the Radiola division; George S. DeSousa, treasurer; and Meade Brunet, manager of the Radiotron division, gave the dealers an inspiring and encouraging outlook for the remainder of the 1928 season and the 1929 season.

Great Market Seen.

"There are 22,000,000 American homes wired for electricity," Mr. Ray pointed out, "and less than 5,000,000 modern radio sets in them. This means that we have scarcely more than scratched the surface, and even when we have sold our prospective market in its entirety, we still have failed to take into account the fact that constant improvements will make it desirable to replace sets again in the years that intervene while we satisfy the virgin demand."

"In addition, there can be no question that the display of pictures in the home in conjunction with a radio is coming eventually, and even now the Radio corporation has a patent on a 'talking book' that is destined to be come a tremendous seller, enabling people to turn on the electric current and have their literature read to them. Already the idea of two radio sets to the family is gaining headway. In some instances, I've been informed that an extra set for the servants is necessary to keep them contented; and there are many needs that will arise for tremendous increases in production as the years pass."

Mr. Nicholas told of the unprecedented and well-nigh unexpected boom in radio demand during 1928, and said that next year is sure to be even bigger.

"Seventy-five per cent of the sets in use when this season began," he stated, "were battery sets. We figure that during this year 20 per cent of these will be replaced with A-C sets and that, in addition to bigger new sales, 1929 will see an even greater ratio of replacement of the old type receivers."

Unprecedented Demand.

Mr. Brunet told how the 1928 demand has surpassed the carefully and scientifically-estimated increased production, and of the tremendous production schedule for 1929. He said that demand for Radiotrons, particularly the demand for the Radiola model 40, has leaped to unparalleled heights.

Other speakers included Philip Alston, vice president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce; Alva G. Maxwell, vice president of the Citizens & Southern National bank; and Robert Strickland, Jr., vice president of the Fourth National bank. All of these speakers welcomed the southern division office to Atlanta and told of this city's many advantages for such an institution.

Mr. Boucheron introduced the personnel of the district office. During the elaborate course dinner served the visiting dealers and distributors from Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee, Florida, Mississippi and Louisiana, an entertainment program featuring dances by Miss Hazel Jones and songs by Miss Catherine Boswell was staged. They were introduced by Lumbard Kay, WSB announcer. Rudy Brown's orchestra provided novelty numbers.

LYLE WOMACK GETS PARTIAL DIVORCE FROM RUTH ELDER

Panama, December 12.—(P)—An interlocutory decree of divorce has been granted Lyle Womack from Ruth Elder, who was rescued by a tanker when she attempted to fly across the Atlantic.

The divorce action was instituted in the Canal Zone district court by Womack on September 6 before sailing for the antarctic with the expedition headed by Commander Richard E. Byrd. In a deposition placed before the court Womack's father said that the couple's married life has been very cruel to him and paid little attention to him, seeming to be more interested in flying across the Atlantic than in retaining his love. He added that the Atlantic flight had placed him under a terrible mental strain.

Referring to his greeting upon Ruth's return to the United States after her rescue, Womack said "I embraced and attempted to kiss her, but she refused to let me. She said, 'Don't be a damned fool.' He also said that since her flight Ruth had treated him with scorn and indifference, assuming an attitude and showing neither love nor affection. He stated that as a result of this treatment he had lost 12 pounds in weight."

RUTH SAYS SHE STILL LOVES RUBY

Los Angeles, December 12.—(P)—Ruth Elder, when shown dispatches today telling of the granting of an interlocutory divorce to her husband, Lyle Womack, by Panama, expressed regret that the action had been taken.

"That hurts me a great deal to know that the decree has been granted," she said, "I didn't want it. I still love him."

Miss Elder, who is appearing here in vaudeville and motion pictures, was reluctant to discuss the proceedings. She insisted that it was a private matter "between us," adding that "only he and I know the truth of it all."

Referring to the deposition of Womack on which the decree was granted, Miss Elder declared she "could not believe Lyle ever said those things."

SUIT SEEKS SALE OF CORAL GABLES FOR $445,000 DEBTS

Jacksonville, December 12.—(P)—Suit to foreclose a number of mortgages on Coral Gables, well-known real estate development near Miami, and demanding the sale of certain property for payment of outstanding and unpaid bonds aggregating $445,000 with interest, was filed in federal court here late today by Grover Middlebrook, trustee for the bond holders.

Coral Gables corporation, the United States Trust company, of New York, is on the property for unpaid income taxes amounting to $387,249.94 together with interest of $50,599.67, and Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, of Miami, Florida, is on the property for unpaid mortgages and sale of the property described in the petition, the suit also asks for final determination of all claims to or liens on the real property involved and makes the federal government and "all persons other than the complainant, having liens upon or claiming interest in the real property referred to in said order, parties defendant in the bill."

A copy of the petition was sent to the attorney general of the United States.

The suit sets forth that the Coral Gables corporation executed and delivered certain mortgages and supplemental mortgages to and in favor of the Biscayne Trust company, of Miami, and in order to secure the principal and interest of certain bonds, sold or assigned to that company the property described in the mortgages.

The suit further states that on June 8, last, the Biscayne Trust company, which had been appointed trustee, resigned and relinquished its trust, and that the Atlanta Trust company, in pursuance of the provisions of the mortgages, appointed Middlebrook as successor trustee.

Demand is made in the suit for the sale of the property involved, under the direction of the court, for the payment of the principal amount of the outstanding bonds and accrued interest thereon, as well as the costs of the litigation.

Papers in the suit were sent to Miami for filing.

PERUVIAN FLIERS HOP TO SANTIAGO EN ROUTE TO N. Y.

Lima, Peru, December 12.—(P)—The National Aeroclub announced today that the Peruvian airmen Carlos Martinez de Pinillos and Lieutenant Carlos Zegarra hopped off from Ilo in southern Peru for Santiago, Chile, this morning. The men hope eventually to reach New York after visiting various South American capitals.

U. S. TO BUY FORESTRY TRACTS IN GEORGIA

Senator Harris Announces
Many Purchases To Be Made in State.

Washington, December 12.—(P)—Senator Harris, democrat, Georgia, announced that the forest reservation commission agreed today to purchase the following forestry tracts in Georgia for protection of watersheds:

Abernathy, Charters and Underwood, White county, 316 acres; Jacob Cain estate, Lumpkin, 102; Henry Cochran, Dawson, 240; J. A. Cochran, Lumpkin, 120; Copperhill Timber and Mineral company, Gilmer, 200; W. P. Davenport, Fannin, 140; Mrs. Effie G. Franklin, White, 490; Miss Lena E. Stephens, White, 514; E. L. Tipton, Lumpkin, 444; H. W. Walker, Lumpkin, 125; John Woody, Lumpkin, 40; Blackley and Martin, Rabun, 15; heirs of Mrs. Malinda Camp, Habersham, 101; L. M. Chastain, Rabun, 103; M. I. Senator Harris, recently appointed in place of Senator Overman, democrat, North Carolina, to the commission, attended his first meeting today.

STUDENTS SOBER, VIRGINIA U. HEAD TELLS GOV. BYRD.

Richmond, Va., December 12.—(P)—Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, has declared charges of excessive drinking at the university to be unfounded, in a formal report to Governor Byrd.

"Conditions at the university are on a par, at least, with similar institutions and there has been and is now going forward in a substantial fashion a steady improvement in these conditions," Dr. Alderman said in giving the governor the result of his investigation. Governor Byrd had requested the investigation on receipt of a letter from the Rev. David Hepburn, superintendent of the Virginia Anti-Saloon league, who said he had reliable information leading him to believe drinking at the university constituted a statewide scandal. Dr. Hepburn asked that federal prohibition agents be given access to the university.

The situation in America seems to me a far more nationwide scandal than the situation at the university is a statewide scandal," Dr. Alderman said.

GIRL IS ATTACKED, CLUBBED TO DEATH; TWO NEGROES HELD

Abbeville, Ala., December 12.—(P)—Two negroes were being held in the Henry county jail here Wednesday charged with attacking a 25-year-old white girl and then clubbing her to death as she was en route to her home several miles west of Fort Gaines, Ga., Tuesday night.

John Wesley Jordan and Joseph Williams are the two suspects held, and county officers indicated that another arrest would be made in connection with the attack later today.

The young woman apparently had been jerked from the buggy in which she was riding and clubbed with a heavy limb, officers said. Her body was found lying in a gully about 20 feet from the roadway two hours after a posse of men had set out in search for her following the arrival of the horse and empty buggy at her father's home.

An unconfirmed report from Fort Gaines stated that authorities had taken into custody a man named Gordon and were holding him in connection with the young woman's death.

SUSPEND SOCIETY AT MICHIGAN UNI. ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Ann Arbor, Mich., December 12.—(P)—The committee on student affairs of the University of Michigan today placed Sphinx, junior honorary society, under suspension, following an investigation of charges that liquor was used in connection with a recent initiation ceremony in which three students were scalped.

The suspension is for an indefinite period.

The committee also passed a resolution providing that no campus society may hold a public initiation without written permission from the dean of students.

Mother of Ten Gets Life Term For Liquor Sale

Lansing, Mich., December 12.—(P)—For selling liquor, Mrs. Etta Mae Miller, of Lansing, mother of 10 children, four of whom are living, faces life imprisonment.

The first woman to feel the sting of the habitual criminal section of Michigan's new criminal code, Mrs. Miller was convicted today by a circuit court jury of 10 men and two women of committing her fourth liquor felony. Under the new code, it is mandatory that she be sent to prison for life as a fourth offender.

Mrs. Miller's husband is serving a two-year term in prison and according to her story is the sole support of her children. The prosecution, however, said the oldest of the children is able to care for the others, the youngest of whom is 13.

The conviction came only a week after Cheunie Tripp, also convicted for four liquor felonies, was sentenced to life imprisonment and at a time when a fight is being waged over a movement for repeal of the new code.

State Secretary Seymour H. Porson, who sat in the state legislature when the habitual criminal code was enacted last session, defended Mrs. Miller. He announced he would appeal the case and would launch a fight in the next legislature to repeal the law.

Mrs. Miller received the verdict without comment. She was taken to jail to await formal sentencing. She was specifically convicted of having sold a small quantity of liquor to three men October 3.

SEEK DISSOLUTION OF ORDER HALTING EVERGLADES WORK

Tallahassee, Fla., December 12.—(P)—The federal district court at Pensacola will be asked on December 21 to dissolve a temporary injunction granted by that tribunal some time ago, which restrained the state drainage board from carrying out Governor Martin's $20,000,000 Everglades drainage program, Attorney General Fred H. Davis said today.

The request for the dissolution will be made to Judge William B. Shepard, the regular presiding judge. The injunction was granted during Judge Shepard's absence by Judge Henry D. Clayton. Mr. Davis said that if the case does not come up on December 21, it will be brought up as soon thereafter as possible.

The injunction was granted on petition of Spitzer, Rorick and Company, Toledo bond firm, on the ground that, carrying out the governor's financing program, contracts between the firm and the drainage board for taking over Everglades' bonds, alleged to be in existence, would be violated.

Judge Shepard will be asked to dissolve the injunction because of the fact that only one judge passed upon the petition, while it is claimed by the state that a court of three judges should have presided in accordance with a ruling of the United States supreme court.

VILLAGE IN ITALY HIT BY LANDSLIDE NEARLY WIPED OUT

Villa Santa Maria, Italy, December 12.—(P)—An avalanche nearly annihilated this mountain village, which is near Lanciano, yesterday. One child was killed, a number of other people were badly injured and ten houses were destroyed. Recent torrential rains were blamed for the catastrophe by government engineers, who brought fascist militia here to assist in rescue work. Other slides are feared, as big masses of rocks and earth appear to be tottering on the mountainside.

NEGRO FIGHTS POLICE TO DEATH IN BATTLE

Barricades Self in House and Wounds Nine Before He Is Shot Down.

Chicago, December 12.—(P)—A 19-year-old negro youth today shot and wounded nine policemen, among them Deputy Commissioner Martin E. Mullen, before more than 200 policemen and firemen, using shotguns, pistols, tear bombs and machine guns, succeeded in breaking into a building where he had barricaded himself and killing him.

The crazed youth, Ernest Whitehurst, staged one of the most protracted barricades in the history of the police department with policemen firing on the building in which he made his stand, from adjacent buildings, telephone poles and even from balconies. When finally cowed Whitehurst had 15 bullet wounds in his body. He lived two hours despite his injuries.

Three sisters, one a year-old baby, and two brothers of the negro were in the house with him throughout the siege. By huddling in an inside room they were able to escape and the effectiveness of the tear bombs thrown through the shattered windows. When the siege was over and they were being led away, Whitehurst nearly white from the plaster chipped from the ceiling of the room by police bullets.

Whitehurst threw a brick through a store window and the police pursued him into his home in North Townsend street. Obtaining a shotgun in his home, he fired on the police with his super-wounding Policeman Edward Fontaine.

Reinforcements were summoned. Then for five hours the police, using steel shields, machine guns, shotguns, tear bombs and streams of water tried unsuccessfully to dislodge the boy who fired with pistols and the shotgun. The police finally broke into the building at dawn and cornered him in the bathroom. He was shot down as he attempted to shoot several officers.

WIFE OF PRISON GUARD ACQUITTED IN INDIANA KILLING

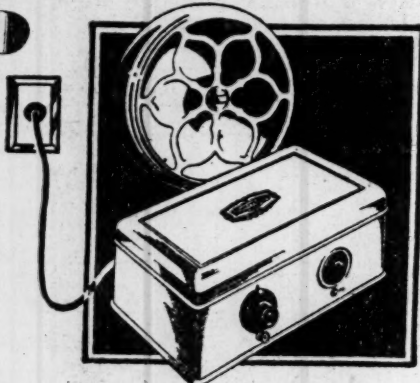

Jeffersonville, Ind., December 12.—(P)—Mrs. Gertrude Baltzer, 28, wife of a prison guard at the Spencer, Ala., penitentiary, was at liberty today, a jury in the circuit court having acquitted her after a 50-minute deliberation late yesterday afternoon of a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of Dennis Heffernan, Louisville taxicab driver, near Speed, Ind., November 3.

Mrs. Baltzer was arrested in company with Claude Lanham, 26, former prisoner at Spencer. Shortly after Lanham's arrest, he admitted to a police confession that he had slain the taxi driver and exonerated Mrs. Baltzer.

On the witness stand Mrs. Baltzer denied any part in the crime. She admitted joining Lanham in Montgomery shortly after the latter's release from the penitentiary, and was heavily injured and ten houses were destroyed. Recent torrential rains were blamed for the catastrophe by government engineers, who brought fascist militia here to assist in rescue work. Other slides are feared, as big masses of rocks and earth appear to be tottering on the mountainside.

PAXON RENAMED HEAD OF CONVENTION BUREAU

Work of Local Organization Pointed Out at Annual Meeting.

Election of officers and the report of President F. J. Paxton featured the sixteenth annual meeting of the board of directors of the Atlanta Convention and Tourist Bureau at the Ansley hotel Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Paxton's report stated that the incomplete record for the current year shows that 64,296 people have attended 293 conventions this year and that since 1913, when the bureau was formed, 3,495 conventions have been secured for the city, which have been attended by 888,612 people and that the amount of money spent here by visitors during that time totals slightly under $27,000,000.

In commenting on the remarkable growth and development of Atlanta during recent years, Mr. Paxton's report stated that no individual or even groups of individuals could claim credit for the advancement, but that the convention and tourist bureau has had a large share through the service it had rendered.

42 Bureaus in Country.

"There are now in America 42 well organized convention bureaus holding membership in the International Association of Convention Bureaus, besides several kindred organizations, all working earnestly to secure conventions for the interests they represent," the report stated. "With competition thus keenly developed, to keep up record is work, but to surpass that record calls for redoubled energy."

"The convention bureau is a organization of the better and more progressive elements of civic life. It represents the city in a social way and its contact with the thousands of convention visitors here each year creates a wealth of good will that could be obtained in no other way. It carries on day by day an energetic sales campaign to bring conventions and convention visitors to Atlanta and on account of the competition which is growing all the time, more has to be offered in the way of service than formerly. The bureau works out the details for many hundred conventions each year and in the meantime is working toward securing new conventions for the coming years. It is becoming increasingly necessary to go after conventions if we get them."

Officers Re-elected.

The following officers were re-elected: F. J. Paxton, president; Ivan B. Allen, vice president, and W. T. Perkins, treasurer. Fred Houser was retained as executive secretary of the bureau and it was announced that Alton B. Hollis has been chosen for the newly created post of assistant to Mr. Houser. Mr. Hollis also has charge of the membership work.

The following are members of the board of directors: Harvey M. Smith, M. S. Smith, George Ripley, Jr., W. O. Foote, J. A. Danwood, Scott Hudson, R. Mifflin Hood, W. Tom Winn, W. P. Heath, Frank L. Butler, James J. deJarnette, Frank T. Reynolds, J. M. McCullough, Jr., Earl Knight, H. Warner Martin, F. J. Paxton, L. H. Beall, E. E. Maffett, Walter B. Stewart, Robert F. Pennington, Ivan E. Allen, Gordon Barnett, William Candler, Frank Neely, W. T. Perkins, W. C. Royer, H. Stampe, H. A. Trisdel, C. G. Beck, Harry Zoubel, chairman of the Fulton county commissioners, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and chairman of the auditorium committee of city council.

$50,000 DAMAGES ASKED FOR VICTIM OF AUTO ACCIDENT

A suit for $50,000 damages for injuries received in an automobile-bicycle accident was filed Wednesday in the city court of Atlanta by James Reddy, Jr., through Mrs. Bessie Allen as next friend, against W. B. and Mrs. W. B. McDonough, of 2793 Peachtree road. The plaintiff alleges that while riding on the handlebars of a bicycle operated by Henry Anderson on Glen Iris drive at Boulevard drive, he was seriously injured by an automobile driven by Mrs. McDonough. The injuries included brain concussion, and a fracture of the skull, according to the petition.

The suit was filed by Reuben A. Garland as attorney for the plaintiff.

MRS. A. H. COOGLER, VICTIM OF BULLET, RESTING EASILY

Mrs. A. H. Coogler, 22, who early Tuesday morning accidentally shot herself at her home, 203 Pryor street, was reported to be resting easily at Georgia Baptist hospital Wednesday night.

Mrs. Coogler stated that she was shot when she was moving a pistol about under her pillow, the weapon being accidentally discharged. The bullet entered the back and ranged down to the abdomen.

Flu Warning Issued Again

Doctors are again warning about colds and flu and realize that treatment should be started quickly. Avoiding constipation, keeping the liver active and the kidneys in good order is of first consideration. Helthe Laxative Salts, an almost tasteless preparation which is now being sold by Atlanta druggists (or by mail), is exceedingly effective, because in addition to keeping the system clear of poisons, it also establishes an alkaline condition, thus building up a natural body and blood resistance. It breaks up the worst kind of cold and clears up flu germs. Three sizes, twenty-five cents, fifty cents, and one dollar. Health-Thrift Laboratories, Station C, Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

Agnes Scott Debate Team Leaves Today for Vassar

Photos by Elliott's Studio.

ELEANOR LEE NORRIS.

ESTHER NISBET.

Hopes of Agnes Scott college at Decatur to win victories in consecutive years over Vassar college at Poughkeepsie are placed in Eleanor Lee Norris and Esther Nisbet (photos above), who leave today at noon for the Vassar college destination.

BY LOUISE M'DANIEL.

Decatur, Ga., December 12.—(Special.)—Miss Esther Nisbet, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Eleanor Lee Norris, Greenville, S. C., and Miss Martha Stackhouse, Dillon, S. C., who compose the intercollegiate debating team of Agnes Scott college, will leave tomorrow noon for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where they will defend their alma mater in the annual Agnes Scott-Vassar debate. The Agnes Scott team will defend the negative side of the question: "Resolved, That Publicly-owned Water Power Resources of the United States Should Be Developed and Operated By Federal and State Governments."

Miss Nisbet, first member of the team, is president of Pi Alpha Phi, the Agnes Scott debating society. She was a member of the intercollegiate team in 1927 and opposed Sophie Newcomb in the annual debate of that year. Miss Norris, second member of the team, is vice president of the debating club and has served as alternate on the intercollegiate team for two consecutive years. Miss Stackhouse, a junior at the college and alternate of the team, has never served on the team before but has been a prominent member of Pi Alpha Phi for several years.

The members of the team will be guests of the New York city chapter of the Agnes Scott Alumnae association Friday night and will arrive in Poughkeepsie Saturday morning. The debate will be held Saturday night, December 15, on the Vassar campus. The team will remain in Poughkeepsie as guests of Vassar until Sunday evening, when they will entrain for Atlanta.

The Agnes Scott-Vassar debate of 1927 was held at Agnes Scott, with the local institution winning the decision.

NEW $5 PREFERRED WHITE MAN, NEGRO, OFFERED FOR SALE BY POWER COMPANY

A new class of Georgia Power company preferred stock, to pay $5 per share per year in dividends, will be offered immediately to residents of Georgia, it was announced Wednesday by officials of the company. The stock is to be placed on the market at $90 per share, plus accrued dividend. Offering of the stock to the public is in keeping with a policy initiated by the company last year, when its $6 preferred stock was purchased by more than 3,000 Georgians.

The $5 preferred stock now being offered is a cumulative stock of non-par value. It has equal preference with the company $6 preferred stock and takes preference as to assets and dividends over all second preferred and common stock of the company. Dividends are payable quarterly, on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1. At the option of the company the stock is redeemable at $110 per share, plus accrued dividend.

The stock, when held by residents of Georgia, is free under present laws from state, county and municipal taxes, and also is exempt from normal federal income tax. The stock is being offered both for cash and on a time payment basis, according to the company's advertisement, published elsewhere in this paper, the time payment plan calling for down payment of $10 per share and payments of $10 per share per month until completion of the contract. The company has limited to 25 shares the amount of stock which may be purchased at any one time by any one person on the time payment plan.

Arrangements have been made by which the stock may be purchased through any employee of the company or through the company's investment agent in the electric and gas building.

FATHER CRIPPLED, FAMILY OF 6 NEEDS BARE NECESSITIES

It was a year ago this month that a well-known snapper and a man, the father of four, went hurtling down 20 feet to hopeless invalidism. In two weeks a second Christmas eve will find this fatherless family in a small brood with crippled legs and a back too twisted ever again to carry a Christmas pack, or to hear the kind of honest toll that once kept a family in humble security.

The brave little mother, with the help of kind Atlantans through the Community Chest and Salvation Army, has been able to eke out enough to feed them and keep a poor roof over their heads. Last Christmas helped her much grief and concern over an injured daddy for Santa to be keenly missed. This year has settled into a drab round of monotonous privation and young heads find room for yearning that Santa Claus will this time remember.

The Salvation Army has the Santa list. It calls for shoes, underwear, dresses, suits and overcoats for children aged two, four, six and eight, and for a mother who is five feet, four inches tall and weighs size 34. It finds calls for dolls, and doll carriages, scooter cars, building blocks and picture books.

If some Atlanta family has, lying around in some clothes closet, attic or trunk, any of the garments or toys the Army will send for them on phone call to Ivy 2224 and four young hearts will not be heavy with gloom on merry Christmas just because a well-roped broke a year ago.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN VICTIM OF MYSTERY MOTOR ACCIDENT

A man whose identity had not been definitely established was delirious and in a serious condition with a severe head injury at Grady hospital late Wednesday night, as a result of an accident believed to have occurred early Wednesday morning on Stewart avenue near Lakewood avenue. Brought to the hospital by an ambulance from Ed Bond and Condon company, the injured man first gave his name as T. F. White but later, in his delirium, muttered many names and addresses.

The driver of the ambulance stated that a man giving his name as P. P. Lowe had struck White when the latter walked into the side of the moving car.

In a long list of homes of well-known people, artists, scientists, musicians and music lovers, patrons of the arts and social leaders, the Sonora Melodion or the Melodion with Radio is today providing the utmost musical enjoyment.

It is only natural that these remarkable instruments should receive enthusiastic acclaim at the hands of such people as these. For those who know good music best are most prompt to recognize the very evident superiorities of the new Sonora instruments.

You may have the Melodion by its own perfect self or in combination with Sonora Radio. Or you may have Sonora Radio alone if you so desire.

The Glorious Music of the New Sonoras

Whatever your choice you are assured of music unbelievably glorious... the sweetness of every instrument... the true timbre of the human voice... the final purity of tone.

When Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle Jr., of Philadelphia and New York, first heard the new Sonora instruments, they selected a Sonora Melodion with Radio.

For the Melodion yields to all its hearers a faithful reproduction of the original... the true beauty which, until now, has been half-hidden in a phonograph record. And Sonora Radio provides aerial music in its purest and most lovely form.

You owe it to yourself to hear these revolutionary new Sonoras. Words cannot adequately describe their amazing perfection. Only your ear can tell you how vastly they differ in tone from all other instruments. And their attractive cabinets will delight your eye as well.

Judge for yourself

Hear them—today, if you can. But by all means hear them. They will be for you, as they have been to so many other music lovers, a new conception. You will realize that here, at last, is a lifetime of musical enjoyment.

And when you learn their cost you'll be amazed that so much musical enjoyment, such lovely cabinets, can be had at so little expense and on such convenient terms. Hear them today!

BLOCK CANDY CO. GIVEN PERMISSION TO OBTAIN CHARTER

The supreme court of Georgia has just handed down a decision in the case of Block vs. Brooks Morgan, et al., in favor of the defendants. This decision now makes it possible for the Block Candy company, a new corporation, of which Brooks Morgan is to be president, to obtain and operate under the Georgia charter, applied for but stopped by injunction.

This suit was filed by some members of the Block family, with a view to stopping the National Biscuit company, which purchased the plant, good will and trade marks of the Frank E. Block company, from assigning to the Block Candy company the right to use the good will and trade marks, of the old company.

The effect of this decision will also make it possible for the National Biscuit company, which has greatly enlarged the old Block plant, to place signs on the building, indicating that plant as the Block Bakery of the National Biscuit company.

HALL DAVIS WILL FILED FOR PROBATE; CONTENT WITHHELD

The will of Hall Davis, West End automobile dealer, who was slain recently by W. L. Shippey, shipping clerk in Rogers wholesale grocery warehouse on Whitehall street, was filed Wednesday with the Fulton county ordinary for probate in solemn form.

Relatives who filed the will for probate immediately took the papers out for service, and requested the ordinary's office not to reveal the contents of the will. No executor was named in the will, and temporary letters of administration will be applied for within a few days, it was said. At the ordinary's office, it was explained that a will does not become a public document when filed for probate in solemn form until it is actually admitted in ordinary's court.

HOKE IS REELECTED FOREIGN TRADE HEAD

Other Officers Elected at Meeting of Local Organization.

Charles F. Hoke, secretary-treasurer and export manager of the Blosser company, was unanimously re-elected to the presidency of the Atlanta Foreign Trade club at a meeting Wednesday noon at the chamber of commerce. Mr. Hoke is now in Havana and a cablegram of greetings and congratulations was sent him following the meeting.

George A. Bland, secretary of the Retail Credit company, who has served for the past year as vice president, was made first vice president. Mr. Bland presided over the meeting in Mr. Hoke's absence.

The activities of the club expanded so much during 1928 that two new offices were created, that of second and third vice president. Robert Hecht, president of the international corporation, and Charles F. d'Ardussey, director of foreign sales for the Read Machinery company, being elected, respectively, to fill these offices.

T. G. Douglas, southeastern manager of Price, Waterhouse and company, was elected treasurer, succeeding Leroy F. Hoke, assistant general passenger agent for the French line, who has been promoted to the position of assistant publicity director for the line in New York city.

William A. Dunlap, commercial agent, Atlanta office of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, was made recording secretary.

George A. Dunagin, in charge of the division of cotton marketing, bureau of agricultural economics, department of agriculture, was elected corresponding secretary.

N. P. Leary, district traffic representative, United States Shipping board, was made membership secretary. Mrs. J. Howell York was re-elected assistant secretary.

John Ashe Scott, publisher of the Miami-Palm Beach-Havana Glimmer, and C. H. McMillen, of the International corporation, were elected to membership.

Among the guests was Phillip Jackson, airways inspector of the department of commerce, from Washington. Announcement was made that the

HARRY DILLARD GIVEN FREEDOM; CASE DISMISSED

The indictment against Harry Dillard, Atlanta youth, was not pressed and the defendant given his liberty Wednesday morning when the case was called on the calendar in Judge G. H. Howard's division of Fulton superior court. He had been charged with larceny of an automobile.

Following dismissal of the indictment, Dillard said that he had never confessed any guilt in the case, but had maintained his innocence ever since his arrest. Dillard said that two other men who pleaded guilty in the case picked him up and gave him a lift in the automobile, which accounted for his being with them when all three were arrested.

Jones-Hill Wedding Plans Are Of Wide Social Importance

Newnan, Ga., December 12.—Of cordial interest to many friends is the announcement of the wedding plans of Miss Harriet Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Jones, of Newnan, to take place at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, December 27, at the First Baptist church, Newnan. The Rev. E. W. Stone, pastor of the church, will officiate at the ceremony in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, O. H. Jones. She has chosen Miss Sarah Brown as her maid of honor, and the best man will be Robert D. Hill, brother of the groom-elect. The bridesmaids will include Misses Sarah Yow, of Lavonia; Catherine Hill, Mary Freeman, Mary Clinton, Mrs. Mary Ella Featherston and Mrs. Hamilton Arnall, all of Newnan.

The flower girls will be little Mary C. Jones, sister of bride-to-be, and Carolyn Jones, of Birmingham, Ala. The groomsmen will include Colquitt Carter, T. H. Allen, Hugh Hill, Harold Jones, Jr., of Tampa, Fla., acting as ushers will be Thomas J. Glover, Strother C. Fleming, Robert E. Jones and Hamilton Hill, Jr.

Miss Jones has been the honor guest at many lovely parties since the announcement of her approaching marriage and others are being planned. Miss Mary Freeman's bridge party was an event of Wednesday, December 12, and Miss Alice McBride gives a bridge tea Thursday, December 13. Miss Zoe Fischer and Mrs. J. H. Powell will give a bridge-tena December 14. Fleming Jones will be host at the Newnan Country club at a dinner party complementing his sister, Miss Rosalie Brown will give a miscellaneous shower December 20 at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Strother C. Fleming will complement their niece, Miss Jones, and Mr. Hill with a dinner party Saturday evening, December 22, at the Piedmont Driving club.

Sunday, December 23, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Jones will entertain the members of the wedding party at a buffet supper at their home on Dunn avenue. Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Jones will complement their daughter and her fiancé at an afternoon tea at their country home, Riverside, December 26, which precedes the wedding rehearsal. Following the rehearsal Miss Catherine Hill and Robert Hill will entertain at dinner, the guests to include members of the wedding party.

A reception immediately following the ceremony December 27 will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hamilton Hill, Sr., at their residence on LaGrange street, Newnan.

Miss Millikin Becomes Bride Of Richard Wace in Toronto

Toronto, Ont., December 12.—(Special.)—Miss Grace Millikin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Milliken, of Atlanta, today became the bride of Richard Wace, son of Brigadier General E. G. Wace, of London, England, and Mrs. Wace. The ceremony was performed in St. Thomas church by Rev. Cecil Stuart.

The bride, given in marriage by Major E. F. Osler, wore a robe of ivory duchess satin fashioned with full skirt which fell in tiers with a deep hem of hand run. Her only ornaments were pearls and she wore the groom's gift of a diamond and platinum watch. She was unattended. A. B. Weir was best man and the ushers were Cwynn Osler and Sydney Saunders.

A reception was held at 195 Wellesley street where Mrs. E. G. Wace, of London, England, and Major and Mrs. Osler received with the bride. Mrs. Wace was modestly gowned in beige lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Wace are leaving by motor on a wedding trip to Washington and New York and on their return will reside at 195 Wellesley street, Toronto.

Miss Millikin made her home in Atlanta for several years with her sister, Mrs. C. Glen Mosley, of 1513 Peachtree street. She was a native of south Georgia. During her years in Atlanta she attended Agnes Scott college and studied piano and voice at the Atlanta Conservatory of Music.

Lennox Robinson Lectures to Drama League Tonight

The Atlanta Drama league presents Lennox Robinson, famous dramatist, in a lecture at 8:15 o'clock this evening at the High Museum of Art.

Mr. Robinson is one of the most distinguished and active leaders of that small group of dramatists and poets who have almost unaided, realized their dreams of restoring the cultural glories of Ireland. At the beginning of the creation of an Irish national theater, W. B. Yeats announced that its purpose was to secure an audience for "the half dozen minds who are likely to be the dramatic imagination of Ireland for this generation." Lennox Robinson's plays have placed him among the foremost of that national theater, and have made possible the achievement of the others.

This eminent author was inspired to write his early plays by the first performance of the Irish plays in the turbulent days when the genius of Synge was shocking Ireland and creating its national folk-drama. "The Clancy Name" marked him as one of the most promising of the Abbey playwrights and from that time on his plays were greeted by enthusiastic audiences. His dramatic talents ripened with "The Cross Roads" in 1909 and "Harvest" in 1910. "Patriots" proved him a master of his craft. Other successful plays, some having been played in New York, as well as London, are "The Dreamers," "The Whitehead Boy," "The Lost Leader," "The Rotten Tale," "Cabbie," "Youth and Age," and "Never the Time or the Place," and his new play, "The Big House."

This is Mr. Robinson's first lecture tour and he is known as a most picturesque speaker. The Atlanta Art association members will be guests of the Oratorical league at the lecture. Tickets may be secured by calling the president, Mrs. P. H. Jeter, at Dearborn 1844, or the treasurer, Miss Ellen Palmer, 1041 West Peachtree.

Red Grange Appears In Football Film At Palace Theater

"Red Grange," the famous college football player, will be seen this week at the Saturday morning matinee at the Palace theater at 10:30 o'clock. "One Minute to Play" is the film not only shows all "Red's" famous stunts, but tells a thrilling story of college life. The final chapter of "The Scout" will show how Scotty finally triumphs over his enemies, and exemplifies the best in scout ideals. A comedy reel completes the film.

To gain even more friends for the matinee, who will appreciate these especially selected programs for young people, the Atlanta Art association is giving this week, a hundred "Big Boy" balloons, one to each youngster who brings with him some new boy or girl who has not visited the junior matinee before.

The name of this newcomer, together with the name of the one who brings him, will be written together with address and telephone number on a sheet of paper, and handed in at the door. A number of the balloons will be on exhibit in the windows of the shops at "Little Five Points" this week. Parents are especially invited to visit the matinees at all times, and learn the value of these programs, which eliminate the objectionable features and teach the children to appreciate the best in films.

Mrs. H. B. Tompkins Entertains at Home. Mrs. Henry B. Tompkins entertained at a luncheon Wednesday at her home on Wesley road. Guests included Mrs. Edgar Epton, of Juncosville, Fla.; Mrs. Prescott Bigelow, of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Ryburn G. Clay, Mrs. Henry Cooper and Mrs. Eloise Robinson Dickey.

St. Philip's Menu Announced Today. The ladies of St. Philip's cathedral, situated at the corner of Washington and Hunter streets, will serve luncheon today from 11:30 until 2 o'clock. Mrs. George Bland will be chairman for the day.

The menu includes: Scalloped oysters or barbeque, pork ham, sweet potatoes with marshmallows, English peas, India relish, whole wheat biscuit, corn sticks, pies, coffee, tea or milk. Plates are 25 cents each. Dessert is ten cents and drinks are five cents.

SALVAGE OF CELTIC STARTED AT COBH; CREW WITHDRAWN

Cobh, Irish Free State, December 12.—(AP.)—The liner Celtic was turned over to salvagers today. The skeleton crew which had remained aboard the vessel since she ran on the Cow and Calf rocks at the entrance of Cork harbor on Monday morning was withdrawn. The men departed for England today.

Two salvage vessels moored alongside the Celtic and started a rush job of removing her cargo of wheat, apples and other American produce. Fear for the return of bad weather spurred the workers.

The salvage of the cargo is furnishing employment to 100 men of Cobh.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

THE CLOSED DOOR. BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

A door which is closed intrigues the mind. For mystery doth lurk behind. —Old Mother Nature. Buster Bear couldn't keep away from the curious little house he had seen two men build in the forest. His common sense told him to keep away. The man smell when he first went back there after the men had left, filled him with distrust. He was full of curiosity, but the man smell overcame that curiosity. So at last he had gone back to his new home up in the ledges on the back side of the Great mountain.

But there was one thing that Buster couldn't forget. He couldn't forget that, with that man smell, there had been mingled the smell of fresh pork — the pig smell. It had come to him from inside that little house. There must be some pig meat in there, thought Buster. "I am sure there is some pig meat in there. I wonder why? I wonder what those men left it there for?" The more he thought about that smell of pig meat the more uneasy he became. So, late the next afternoon, he was back near that little house. Right away he noticed that there was something different about it. At first he couldn't think what it was. He walked all around it, wrinkling his brows and trying to think what there was unfamiliar about that little house. Suddenly it dawned on him. When he had left it the night before it had been open at one end. Now that end was closed. A door had been shut. Buster was disappointed. He was much

Mr. and Mrs. Cheney Honor Miss Hollis

Among the many parties to be given during the Christmas season in honor of the debutantes will be the dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Cheney will entertain Wednesday evening, December 19, at the Biltmore hotel.

Honor guest for this affair will be their daughter, Miss Josephine Hollis, who is numbered among the most popular of the season's group of buds.

"Cat" he exclaimed under his breath. "As sure as I'm alive there's a cat in there! A bobcat! Now, what is he doing in there? I wonder if he has eaten up all that pig meat?"

Once more Buster picked the little house and sniffed at the cracks. He had been right—it was the strong smell of cat. It was so strong that Buster knew the cat was in there right then. And suddenly it came over Buster that if the cat was in there he couldn't get out. No, sir, he couldn't get out. Once more Buster backed away in haste. Could it be that that little house was a trap? It didn't seem possible. It didn't look like a trap. But there was that cat in there and that cat couldn't get out.

"I wonder," muttered Buster, "I think I'll hang around a bit." The next story: "Buster Bear Hangs Around."

This delightful affair will be given at the regular debutante night dinner-dance at the hotel, which will be the initial social event of the Christmas season to take place at the hotel.

Invited to meet Miss Hollis will be the members of the Debutante club and a group of young men, the guest list to number 30.

Best Remedy for Obsolete Cough Made at Home

You'll never know how quickly a stubborn cough or chest cold can be conquered, until you try this famous recipe. It is used in millions of homes, because it gives more prompt, positive relief than anything else. It's no trouble at all to mix and costs but a trifle. Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey to make a full pint. This saves two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough medicine, and gives you a purer, better remedy. It never spoils, and tastes good—children like it.

You can actually feel its penetrating, soothing action on the inflamed throat membranes. It also promptly loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and at the same time, it is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes. This three-fold action explains why it brings such quick relief even in severe bronchial coughs and "flu" coughs.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest healing agents for severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Christmas Season Is Impetus To Varied Activities at Fort

Fort McPherson, December 12.—A smart affair of Thursday will be the bridge-luncheon to be given by Mrs. Will L. Pyles at her quarters in the garrison. Covers will be placed for fourteen members of the military contingent.

Friday evening the hop at the Officers' club will center interest and several dinner parties have been planned to precede the hop. Major and Mrs. Carl H. Seals will entertain at dinner at their quarters, including in their guest list 21 members of the military set. Covers will be placed for General and Mrs. Abraham G. Lott, Colonel and Mrs. Lochlin W. Caffey, Colonel and Mrs. Walter O. Russell, Major and Mrs. Nelson M. M. Major and Mrs. Augustus B. Jones, Major and Mrs. Roland Gaugler, Captain and Mrs. Robert Joerg, Jr., Lieutenant and Mrs. Del Comfort, Miss Helen Caffey, Lieutenant Edward H. McDaniel and Lieutenant Charles Liffey.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Gilbert Procter and Lieutenant and Mrs. L. H. Joffe will entertain at a tea-dance at the Officers' club at Fort McPherson Wednesday afternoon, December 19, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Colonel and Mrs. H. F. Hansell and Miss Susie Hansell will be special guests and a number of the military and civilian contingent will attend.

The approach of the Christmas season is heralded by the announcement of the return of the college set to spend the holidays at the garrison and the arrival of several attractive visitors who will be guests of members of the post personnel during the festive season.

Miss Katharine Ripley, who is a student at Shorter college at Rome, will return December 20 to spend a fortnight with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. H. A. Ripley, while Miss Helen Bach will return from Mount Holyoke December 22 to visit her parents, Colonel and Mrs. Christian A. Bach, until the New Year.

Miss Katharine Foster will have as her guest Miss Eleanor Harmon, the lovely daughter of Major and Mrs. D. W. Harmon, of the Presidio of California. Miss Harmon, who was a chum of Miss Foster's during the time Colonel and Mrs. Foster and Major and Mrs. Harmon were stationed in Washington, D. C., will be quite an acquisition to the numerous festivities planned for the holiday season.

Colonel and Mrs. H. F. Hansell and their daughter, Miss Susie Hansell, are the anticipated guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. L. H. Joffe. Colonel and Mrs. Hansell and Miss Hansell are en route to Colonel Hansell's new station at Fort Oglethorpe, Tenn. Mrs. Hansell and Miss Hansell recently returned from an extended European tour.

Miss Katharine Foster has returned to the garrison from Fort Benning, where she was a fete visitor as the guest of Captain and Mrs. C. L. Bortle and Lieutenant and Mrs. W. H. Bartlett.

Wednesday afternoon Little Miss Harriet Ramsey, the elder daughter of Captain and Mrs. Thomas H. Ramsey, entertained a group of the sub-junior set at her quarters in celebration of her eighth birthday. A miniature Christmas tree gaily decorated graced the center of the table and at each place were tiny houses and Santa Claus favors. The green-frosted birthday cake with its eight glowing candles, was cut by the small hostess. The guests included Mary Dinsmore, Peggy Moll, Polly Abraham, Dorothy Holliday, Yancy Ann Gaugler, Lenora Gaugler, Martha Procter, Pinkie Moll and Patsy Joffe.

Agnes Lee Chapter Postpones Meeting.

The meeting of the Agnes Lee chapter, U. D. C., of Decatur, which was scheduled for 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, is postponed until the regular meeting date in January.

Silk Stockings In Peeress' Kit On African Hop

BY MARTHA STRAYER.
United News Special Correspondent.

Washington, December 12.—Quinine pills and silk stockings went along with the only woman flier who ever has piloted a plane 11,000 miles over the wilds of Africa.

Lady Mary Heath, British flying peeress, who also is the only woman on the program of the International Civil Aviation conference here, today told a group meeting what she took with her as personal equipment on the flight she made alone from Capetown, South Africa, to London.

One flying helmet, two blouses, one jersey, two wash silk dresses, one set change underclothing, one white flannel skirt, one evening dress, one pair of tennis shoes, one pair of black satin shoes, six pairs of silk stockings, one tennis racket, one pair mosquito boots, two yards mosquito net, one ordinary set of toilet requisites, quinine, iodine, carbolic vaseline, two bandages, Bible, one 16-bore shotgun and ten rounds ammunition.

Her leadership is advocating establishment in America of light airplane flying clubs which are popular in Great Britain and Europe. She has been flying for three years at a mountain height of thousands of miles.

As to the development of flying in America, she is amazed at the lack of detail fliers' maps.

"We have them for practically every foot of country at home," she says. "That's why we have so few accidents such as are fairly common in America—crashing into the side of a mountain, losing our way and having to make a forced landing in a fog, etc. Only once in the past four years has a flier in Great Britain crashed into an elevation."

"I have flown for thousands of miles through fog, 50 feet above ground, following a railroad track by keeping my fingers on a detail map. Here, I know from the map, is a church, steeply here is a hill, and so on."

Lady Heath is one of three women fliers on the official list of delegates and representatives at the conference. The other two are Amelia Earhart, first woman trans-Atlantic passenger, and Ruth Elder.

On her African trip, the British peeress acted as her own mechanic. After each 25 flying hours, she tightened and adjusted all nuts and bolts; after each 50 hours she gave the engine a complete overhauling.

She is a handsome, slender young woman, very British and much devoted to flying.

SERVICE LEAGUE OF YOUNG PEOPLE TO GIVE BENEFIT

Members of the Young People's Service league of All Saints church will present "My Spanish Sweetheart" at Eggleston hall beginning at 8:15 o'clock tonight. The performance is staged as a benefit for the new Eggleston Memorial hospital, a child's institution.

Helen Battle, prominently connected in local amateur theatrical circles, is director, and Fritz Roberts, president of the All Saints organization, is business manager.

Producers have gathered a group of unusual talent for the presentation, and patrons are promised one of the best local talent performances ever presented here.

Among those who will have parts are Misses Helen Smith, Dorothy Jackson, Lorraine Howard, Betty Hainbright, Billy Linthicum, Elizabeth Howard, Nancy Keeler, Betty Gilmore, Isabelle Ingles, Charlotte Beck, Beck, Collinsworth, Horton, Roberts and Howard Callaghan, Bill Dawson, Charles von Hermann, Fritz Roberts and Fred Stove.

EX-POLICE CHIEF GIVEN $250 FINE ON LIQUOR CHARGE

On a plea of guilty to charges of possessing liquor, L. T. Melton, former chief of police of Hapeville, was fined $250 Wednesday by Judge Jesse Wood in the criminal court of Atlanta. Melton was given a 12 months suspended sentence in the case, on condition he pay the fine.

Melton told Judge Wood that a friend from Atlanta had taken him to his home to be stored until December 15, and that the friend told him he would give Melton half of the amount the whisky brought.

American League Voted Against Proposed 10-Man Team

Draft Meeting Also Ignored By Magnates

Proposal To Eliminate Weak Pitchers From Batting Order Unsound, They Say.

BY CHARLES W. DUNKLEY.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Chicago, December 12.—(AP)—The American league wants its pitchers to do their own hitting.

The club owners, meeting today, decided against the plan advocated by John A. Heydler, president of the National league, to have ten-man teams, the tenth one being used as a substitute batsman for the pitcher.

They decided the idea was unsound, and cast it overboard with the result that it probably will not even be discussed when the club owners of the American and National leagues meet in their joint session tomorrow.

Draft Is Ignored.
The American league also decided to ignore the minor league draft meeting at West Baden, Ind., January 10, because they felt that the minor league draft meeting, the American league owners, who made a similar decision at their meeting in New York yesterday.

Ernest S. Barnard, president of the American league, said that although no formal vote was taken on the proposal, an informal discussion disclosed that if the proposition were to be presented at the joint meeting tomorrow, it would meet with unanimous opposition from the junior circuit.

Change Impractical.
"The proposed change would not prove practical," President Barnard said. "The minor league draft meeting is a benefit to the game and I am not in favor of any drastic change that would revolutionize the sport."

The managers were inclined to treat the suggestion facetiously. Billy Evans, manager of the Cleveland Indians, who knows baseball rules up one side and down the other, thought the proposed change was ridiculous.

"Why," said Evans, "if such a rule were to be put into effect, it would have to be sent out and bring Larry Lajoie back into the fold."

Bucky Harris, manager of the Tigers, said the change would ruin baseball. Roger Peckinpaugh, manager of the Cleveland club, said the suggested change would take all the gamble out of the game.

"The manager would not have a chance to do any master minding," Peckinpaugh added.

Russell Leno, Blackhawk, newly appointed manager of the White Sox, thought the idea a joke.

Want Regular Turn.
"My pitchers would assassinate me if they could not take their regular turn at bat," Blackhawk remarked. "A pitcher leads a doubtful but interesting life to the game."

Most of the deliberation of the American league club owners today was routine, of little interest to the baseball public. Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit club, was re-elected vice president of the league with the presidents of the Philadelphia, Washington, St. Louis and Detroit clubs constituting the new board of directors.

Trade talk simmered around the lobby of the Congress hotel but it was mostly conversation. The only deal disclosed was the purchase of Earl Crenshaw, centerfielder with the Oklahoma City club, and one of the leading hitters of the Western league last season. He was purchased by the Cincinnati Nationals for a reported price of $10,000.

Eugene "Bubbles" Hargrave, catcher with the Cincinnati Reds, may become manager of the St. Paul club in the American association next season, if a satisfactory deal can be arranged. St. Paul, it is understood, was willing to part with Paul Zahner or "Huck" Betts, pitchers, and perhaps some cash to obtain Hargrave. Nick Allen, retiring manager of the Saints is slated to become head coach for the White Sox.

Roger Bresnahan, recently cast adrift by the New York Giants, may join the Cardinals as coach for Manager Billy Southworth.

Home From Orient, Cobb Says He Has Scored His Last Run

BY RUSSELL J. NEWLAND.
Associated Press Staff Writer.

San Francisco, December 12.—(AP)

Professor Tyrus Cobb, one of the greatest players baseball has ever known, never bothered with foreign languages when he was pounding out hitting and fielding records, but he had to learn a few words of Japanese to "get by" in the Orient.

The former Tiger star arrived from a two-month stay in the Far East. A friend asked, "It's you, is it, Mr. Cobb?"

Before he could catch himself, Ty answered: "So Des-hai-origato."

Translated it means, "So it is, yes thank you." And thereby hangs the tale of how a great American league outfielder who seldom booted the ball, fumbled his way to popularity in the land of the rising sun on four seemingly insignificant words.

Everywhere Tyrus went, in fact every time he stepped out of his hotel, the youth of Japan swarmed at his heels. Greetings and questions in native tongue beat a tattoo on his ears.

Cobb conceived the idea of replying in kind. It went over big. Interpreters were plentiful but the natives liked to hear "the great baseball man" talk. The four-word speech never failed to bring a cheer.

Upon arrival, Cobb reiterated his intention of permanently retiring from baseball. He said that 24 years of the grind was enough and that he was not even considering managing a club. He plans to leave this week for his home in Augusta, Ga.

McLain May Find Himself Minus Gridiron
Iowa City, Iowa, December 12.—(AP)—Mayer McLain, Iowa's dashy Indian fullback, may be a man without a college gridiron.

Barred from further athletic competition in the Big Ten because of the three-year player rule, McLain has expressed the desire to play with some eastern school, preferably Carnegie Tech, of Pittsburgh.

Carnegie Tech athletic officials, however, said while they would welcome him, that his three years of college football would automatically bar him from their team.

As most colleges of importance have the three-year rule, McLain is still seeking for a football camping place for 1930.

COLUMBUS MAN BUYS FRANCHISE OF FOX CLUB
Columbus, Ga., December 12.—(AP)

After a season of financial losses, the Columbus club of the Southeastern league today was sold to C. D. Smith and association, thus assuring the club of professional baseball this year.

Sale of the club was conducted through the sealed bid system, the offer of Smith being given preference over two others.

The actual transfer of the club to the new owners will be made at an early date, it was announced.

The sum involved in the transaction was not given in the statement.

The Southeastern league experienced frequent financial crises last summer. After starting the season as an eight-club circuit, Savannah withdrew because of losses and the directorate of the league asked Albany to withdraw to lower the circuit to six clubs. Pensacola, Montgomery and Columbus also had troubles of one kind or another.

Tampa, Montgomery, Selma, Jacksonville, Columbus and Pensacola are the clubs now holding franchises.

Hamilton in "No Sale," the latter a Talmi comedy.

Rialto.
The Rialto is offering this week a first rate production, "The House of the Living Dead," featuring Chester Conklin, Thelma Todd, Montagu Love and Larry Kent. There is a spook and a ghost in the reel, and the story centers about an old dwelling in which is supposed to be hidden a fortune and the claimants proceed to try and find it.

Howard.
Clara Bow, the most talked of girl of the age, again challenges youth in another Madame Glynn fervid romance, "Three Week Ends," which plays at the Rialto.

Loew's No. 2.
Both the narrow-minded Puritanical members of the older generation and the carefree-smoking, gin-drinking members of the younger generation come to a sound spanking in Allan Dwan's production of "Fazil," appearing at Loew's Theatre No. 2 today, based on the absorbing story by Rex Beach.

Cameo.
Wesley Ruggles has made an entertaining production of the film, "Beware of Widows," which was adapted from the Owen Davis stage farce. Laura La Plante is the star.

Ponce de Leon.
"The Fleck's In" starring Clara Bow, will open at the Ponce de Leon theatre today and Friday with amateur night Friday.

Metropolitan.
Colleen Moore, Neil Hamilton, Ford Sterling, Claude Gillingwater and Julianne Johnston make up the leading members in the cast of "Oh Kay," the pictureization of the show made famous by Elsie Janis, now being shown at the Metropolitan. On the same program is Moritone news and Lloyd Loew's Georgia.

Keith's Georgia is offering for its screen attraction this week "American Boy Friend" (Buddy Rogers) in his latest romantic reel—"Some One to Love," with Mary Brian and William Austin. The story finds Buddy Rogers in the role manager of a girls' school where the (one) girl is a pupil. On the stage Roscoe Ails fills the headline spot assisted by Miss Shirley Dahl and a symposium of the latest hand. Other Keith acts included in the program are the Three Co-Eds offering "Campus Harmony," also Lester and Irving trio billed as "An Athletic Treat," in which they do a spectacular feat called the "double lift."

Loew's Capitol.
Laughs galore are found in the comedy act of Bert Walton, headliner at Loew's Capitol theatre. Other acts are Brattle and Pells; Harry H. Toomer and Esther Gray in a clever comedy sketch; Earle and Bell, harmony singers and musicians, and Carr Brothers and Betty, comedy hand balancers. The picture is "Man, Woman and Wife."

Winter Fights Hold Interest Of Ring Fans

Many Good Battles Signed for New York; Canzonieri Shows Friday.

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY.
United News Staff Correspondent.

New York, December 12.—Popular prices and new faces have stimulated interest in boxing and Tex Rickard expects Friday night's bout between Tony Canzonieri, former featherweight champion, and Al Singer, young Bronx boy, to draw the third capacity at Madison Square Garden this winter.

With a top price of $5.40 prevailing, the Canzonieri-Singer bout is expected to draw the heaviest crowd since the Joe Glick-Baby Joe Gans and Tony Canzonieri-Jimmy Braddock bouts. Both drew capacity crowds.

Singer Sensational.
Since losing his featherweight crown to André Strum, of France, Canzonieri has defeated Gaston Charrier, Frenchman, and knocked out Chick Suggs. Singer overnight has become the front rank of the featherweights and in recent bouts has scored knockouts over Lou Moskowitz, Johnny Lawson and Pete Zivic.

Singer was originally booked to meet John Dundee, veteran Italian, who held the 126-pound title before Canzonieri, but the New York State Athletic commission vetoed Dundee as an opponent for the hard-hitting Singer.

With Suggs, who defeated Harry Ritman, or Pete Nabo, Seminole Indian.

Hopes Abandoned.
Tommy Loughran's departure for Chicago to start his heavyweight campaign against Big Boy Peterson, who won over Paulino Uzcudun on a foul at Ebbets field last summer, at Chicago Monday night, has resulted in the abandonment of the fight.

The January 4 date originally had been set aside for Joe Sekyra, Dayton, Ohio, heavyweight, and Young Slocum, of Georgia, but Slocum was called off because Stribling already had signed to fight in Kansas City January 1.

Maloney To Fight.
Jimmy Maloney, Boston heavyweight, will make his first appearance in the garden since Tony Heeney knocked him out with one punch, when he meets O'Kelly, the new Irish heavyweight, in a 10-round bout December 21.

The bouts planned for the garden in December and January follow:
December 14—Al Singer vs. Tony Canzonieri, featherweights.
December 21—Jim Maloney vs. Con O'Kelly, heavyweights.
December 28—Gene de Vos vs. Ace Hudkins, middleweights. (Postponed from December 10 because of a bad leg on the part of de Vos.)
January 4—Jimmy Slatery vs. Jack Delaney, light-heavyweight.
January 11—Jimmy McLain vs. Joe Glick, lightweights. (Not yet closed.)
January 18—Jimmy Braddock vs. Leo Lonski. (Braddock signed, and Lonski expected to sign soon.)
January 25—Jack Sharkey vs. K. O. Christner, heavyweights.

Hicks Is Elected Alabama Captain
Birmingham, Ala., December 12.—(AP)—Billy Hicks will captain the University of Alabama football team next year. He was elected captain of the 1929 Crimson Tide at the annual Birmingham banquet of the Alabama alumni here tonight. Hicks is a quarterback. Motton Smith, tackle, was named alternate captain.

Ex-Champion of Ring Is Sentenced to Jail
Pittsburgh, December 12.—(AP)—Frank Klaus, former middleweight boxing champion of the world, was sentenced today to jail in United States court today for violation of the prohibition law, but his request that he be permitted to remain at liberty until after the Christmas holidays was granted by Judge F. P. Schoonmaker.

Klaus must enter a cell January 1 and spend two months there, besides paying a fine of $200 as a result of his plea of guilty to selling whisky in his saloon in Braddock, Pa.

Miss Waring Enters Finals at Pinehurst
Pinehurst, N. C., December 12.—(AP)—Miss Helen Waring, of York, N. Y., medalist, entered the final of the season members tournament of Pinehurst Country club by defeating Mrs. F. E. Snow, of Montreal, in the semifinal this morning, 7 to 6.

Scoring the lowest round of any woman player at Pinehurst this season, Mrs. J. D. Chapman with 85 holes in 102, defeated Mrs. H. H. Rackham of Detroit, to become the final finalist.

Mrs. Chapman was one up on Mrs. Rackham at the end of the match.

Tech Band Will Be Photographed As Aid in Raising Funds for Trip

As a means of aiding the Tech band to secure the necessary funds to go to Pasadena for the Tech-California game, Tom James, manager of Loew's Capitol theatre, announced Wednesday night that a film would be made this morning of the Tech band in action to be shown later at the Capitol.

The film is expected to be ready for showing to Friday audiences. It will show the band in action, executing its various maneuvers while playing its different Tech battle songs. It will be run as a trailer to the regular picture.

This move by Manager James is expected to expedite matters in raising the necessary funds for sending the band to the coast. A campaign is being started now and a large amount has already been pledged. A considerable donation will be made the fund by the Capitol.

McGraw and Mack.
It has been 23 years now, and a bit longer, since John J. McGraw and Connie Mack met in their first world series. It has been 15 years since Mathewson and Plank are gone—most of the others who met them have passed out of baseball, but here are McGraw and Mack with a great chance to mix again. They are not in by a number of jumps—but they have their chance. Mack, last season after a ragged start, cut down a lead of 12 or 13 games, only to have the Yankees flag him down the stretch. He won't get away as slowly next spring, with a young crew that is now seasoned. He will be traveling swiftly from the opening gun, especially with Bob Grove ready for another big year. He will have his share of trouble stopping the Yankees, but each year now takes away something from their veterans.

McGraw has an even tougher job ahead than Mack faces. The Cubs, with Hornsby, will be stronger than ever. Pittsburgh still has a lot of stuff and so has St. Louis. Pittsburgh might have won last year by a fair margin with only a normal crop of injuries.

Yet McGraw and Mack have their chance to put where they left off 15 years ago—and they were not kids at that earlier date. If they have a chance down the stretch there will be a lot of cheering from many neutral points to help them along.

The Two Top Choices.
As the situation stands to date, Jack Sharkey and Stribling are the two leading heavyweight contenders. Both have better records than pugilists that has been worse than pugilists. Sharkey still has more class than most of those who have been around, and Stribling must have improved. The best answer to this is the fact that practically all the heavyweights are willing to fight any one—except Stribling. There is no better way to rank a fighter.

It is hardly probable these two will meet before spring. Both have to have softer targets to shoot at. And there is always the chance one of these softer targets will become extremely annoying.

Sharkey is remembered that he is only 24 years old, with more fighting or boxing experience than Dempsey and Tanney ever ran across in their entire careers. Those who have seen him work in the last six months are confident he will show much better punching from and force than he ever showed before. If he beats out the wrestling he will be hard to beat by any of those now around.

With Sharkey it has always been a matter of how he happened to feel on the night of the fight. He can peddle out his shins when he happens to feel like it, but his appearance has been able to forecast his fighting moods. He has looked worse for a good fighter and has looked better for a poor fighter than any one in the ring.

Sharkey has been something like most of the football teams of two different days—totally unlike.

But he has class and class should go a long way as far as the present boxing is concerned.

Suggestions for Golfing Christmas Gifts.
1. A putter that never misses at seven feet.
2. A slice absorber.
3. A brassie that doesn't top.
4. A bunker without heel prints.
5. Two new niblis.
6. A shankless mashie.

7. A golf ball that squeaks when it gets lost.

Amateur Rules.
There are two points to consider in making rules for amateurism—two main points.
1. A rule that can be enforced.
2. A rule that commands the respect of the majority interested in amateur play.

It is better to have a broader rule that can be enforced with public respect to back it up than a narrow rule that can't be enforced.

Always remembering that if this happy nation hasn't thousands of holes and laws that can't be enforced it becomes extremely unhappy.

"Paul Scull," writes observer, "is the best all-around kicker in the game—putting or drop kicking. He is a fine passer and a fine pass receiver. He is a good running back, but not a great one. He is as good a defensive back as I have ever seen—and one of the best blockers. He is a star in at least six different lines and good in all of them. Is there any other back who can show better all-around stuff? Not that any one has dug up, as an all-around performer, Jim Thorpe decided to call it a career."

Hovater Will Resign As Georgetown Coach
Georgetown, Ky., December 12.—(AP)—Walter E. Hovater, head athletic coach of Georgetown college since 1924, will resign at the close of the school year next spring, he announced today. He is undecided whether he will continue coaching or enter business.

Hovater came to Georgetown from the University of Alabama, where he was an outstanding athlete. One season he was chosen all-Southern quarterback.

Winter Fights Hold Interest Of Ring Fans

Many Good Battles Signed for New York; Canzonieri Shows Friday.

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY.
United News Staff Correspondent.

New York, December 12.—Popular prices and new faces have stimulated interest in boxing and Tex Rickard expects Friday night's bout between Tony Canzonieri, former featherweight champion, and Al Singer, young Bronx boy, to draw the third capacity at Madison Square Garden this winter.

With a top price of $5.40 prevailing, the Canzonieri-Singer bout is expected to draw the heaviest crowd since the Joe Glick-Baby Joe Gans and Tony Canzonieri-Jimmy Braddock bouts. Both drew capacity crowds.

Singer Sensational.
Since losing his featherweight crown to André Strum, of France, Canzonieri has defeated Gaston Charrier, Frenchman, and knocked out Chick Suggs. Singer overnight has become the front rank of the featherweights and in recent bouts has scored knockouts over Lou Moskowitz, Johnny Lawson and Pete Zivic.

Singer was originally booked to meet John Dundee, veteran Italian, who held the 126-pound title before Canzonieri, but the New York State Athletic commission vetoed Dundee as an opponent for the hard-hitting Singer.

With Suggs, who defeated Harry Ritman, or Pete Nabo, Seminole Indian.

Hopes Abandoned.
Tommy Loughran's departure for Chicago to start his heavyweight campaign against Big Boy Peterson, who won over Paulino Uzcudun on a foul at Ebbets field last summer, at Chicago Monday night, has resulted in the abandonment

Tech Attendance for Nine Games Placed Above 175,000

Jacket Team Near Record For '29 Season

Coast Game New Year's Day May Set All-Time Mark for a Southern Eleven.

BY HORACE C. RENEGAR, Associated Press Sports Writer.
Georgia Tech's Golden Tornado was the greatest drawing attraction of the southern football season, between 175,000 and 200,000 fans having witnessed the big team from the Atlanta flats in action in nine games.

Five times more than 25,000 saw Tech play, while on another occasion the estimated attendance was 20,000 and the smallest crowd of the season was in the neighborhood of 10,000.

Incidentally the biggest football crowd of the year in Dixie—38,000—saw Tech battle Georgia in the last game of the season.

Atlanta drew four crowds of more than 25,000. The Tech-Notre Dame, Tech-Vanderbilt, Tech-Alabama and Tech-Georgia all passed that figure, while 26,000 saw the Tornado play North Carolina at Chapel Hill and some 20,000 witnessed the Tech-Tulane affair at New Orleans.

Tennessee playing Vanderbilt at Nashville, Virginia meeting North Carolina at Charlottesville, Virginia Military institute playing Virginia Tech at Roanoke and Tulane against Louisiana State at New Orleans were other games to bring more than 20,000 each into the stands.

While no official figures yet have been announced as to the paid gate receipts at games in which the Tornado played, it is considered a forgone conclusion that the team played before some 40,000 more than in 1927. Tech was the leading attraction then also.

With the probability that 65,000 or more will see Coach Bill Alexander's team at Pasadena against California New Year's day, the Tornado is in a fair way to set an all-time southern record as a southern football attraction.

The estimated attendance figures for some of the games in the south during the 1928 season follow:

Georgia Tech-Georgia at Atlanta 36,000

Georgia Tech-Notre Dame at Atlanta 27,000

Georgia Tech-Vanderbilt at Atlanta 27,000

Georgia Tech-Alabama at Atlanta 25,000

Georgia Tech-North Carolina at Chapel Hill 26,000

Georgia Tech-Tulane at New Orleans 20,000

Tennessee-Vanderbilt at Nashville 25,000

Louisiana State-Tulane at New Orleans 27,000

Virginia-North Carolina at Charlottesville 20,000

Virginia Poly-Virginia Military Institute at Roanoke 20,000

Alabama-Georgia at Birmingham 18,000

Florida-Georgia at Savannah 20,000

South Carolina-Clemson at Columbia 15,000

Birmingham-Southern-Howard at Birmingham 15,000

Kentucky-Washington & Lee at Lexington, Ky. 12,000

Florida-Washington & Lee at Jacksonville 15,000

Mississippi A. & M.-University of Mississippi at Starkville, 12,000

An Opinion

GAMBLING is wicked. Very wicked. Particularly wicked for those who lose their bets, but gambling will go on as long as this old world makes its rounds. And as long as folks will gamble they will make wagers in such an ambiguous manner as to make their settlement questionable on pay day.

This office has been in receipt of more than half a hundred calls and letters during the past few days, asking the opinion of your humble servant on a certain wager. The question has been asked so much that we take this opportunity of giving our opinion on the matter publicly. In this way we may save some time and trouble for the "wagers" and for ourself.

The disputed question is as follows:

A bets before the beginning of the Georgia Tech season that Tech will not lose a game this season.

B naturally bets that Tech will lose a game this season.

The question is, "Does A win the bet now or must he wait until Tech plays California?"

Our opinion (given only as such and for what it's worth) is that A won the bet as soon as the Georgia game was over. When the bet was made before the first game, Tech's season consisted of nine scheduled games. A had no intimation that Tech would play more than nine games and B was betting against the nine games only. The California game is purely a post-season encounter and should have no bearing on the original bet.

Reserve

Fans who choose to amuse themselves these days making funny comparisons between Tech and California with nothing to work on except a lot of hokey can sympathize with your correspondent when he is asked to pick the winner from this distance and at this time. Naturally nobody can pick the winner, but there are a lot of direct and indirect conclusions to be drawn.

A dispatch from the University of California news bureau today brings a simple statement that really presents a very juicy bit of argument for the Tech supporters. The dispatch announces that 16 members of the Golden Bear team have been given block letters for playing sufficient time in conference games.

Get the idea? Sixteen men got letters at California this year because Nibs Price had but 16 men with ability enough to win letters. We make no attempt to underrate the ability of these 16 men, but it is not natural to suppose that the reserve strength of the California outfit is not particularly high if but 16 men won letters.

The awards have not yet been made at Georgia Tech, but it is virtually certain that more than 25 men will win letters as valuable members of the 1928 Tornado. Part of this may be due to different methods of coaching, but any coach will use his reserve strength more frequently than Nibs Price did this year if he has the reserve to use.

In practically every important game this year Tech's reserve strength either directly or indirectly turned the tide in Tech's favor. Without that strength Tech would have had an almost impossible task with their 1928 schedule. What part the great Tornado reserve will play in the Tournament of Roses game is questionable, but it is a great factor in the Tornado's favor.

Off to Sea.

Commander Jonas Ingram, athletic director at the Navy, and older brother of Bill, the head coach, has been ordered to the seas.

COLORED TITLE LIES BETWEEN CLARK, TUSKEGEE

Tuskegee, Ala., December 12.—(P) Tuskegee institute and Clark university finished the Southeastern negro conference football season with the best records although the championship will not be awarded until the conference meets at Montgomery Saturday and rates the teams by the Dickinson system.

The record of games played within the conference follows:

TEAMS	W.	L.	T.
Tuskegee institute	5	1	2
Clark university	5	1	1
Atlanta university	4	1	0
Fisk university	4	1	0
Knoxville college	2	1	3
Morris Brown university	2	2	1
Alabama State Normal	4	3	1
Morehouse college	2	3	0
Tenn. A. & I. college	1	3	1
Talladega college	1	4	1
Florida A. & M.	0	5	0
Miles Memorial	0	6	0

The Dickinson system takes into consideration the strength of the schedules of the teams, making the record of games won or lost secondary.

New Jersey Dog Wins Derby Trials

Pinehurst, N. C., December 12.—(P) The prized derby title of the Pointe Club of America went to a New Jersey dog, Rumson Farm's Bess, owned by Raymond Hoagland, Jr., Rumson, after a spirited contest by ten dogs over the courses of the Continental Field Trial club at Pinehurst yesterday and today.

Second place was awarded Unrose Ann, owned by Joseph Brunner, of Buffalo, N. Y., and third place to Rambling Boy, owned by R. T. Weeks, of Whitakers, N. C.

Rumson Farm's Cleo, owned by Raymond Hoagland, Jr., of Rumson, N. J., won the all-age member stakes in the finals. Farmwood's Snowflake and Lady Momoney, both owned by Udo M. Fleischmann, of Fairfield, Conn., were second and third respectively. Rumson Farm's Bess, owned by Hoagland, was given fourth position.

A purse of $500 was awarded the winner of the derby and a trophy for the all-age winner.

Army Polo Team Is Again Defeated

Pinehurst, N. C., December 12.—(P) Army poloists again met defeat in the Sand Hill Polo club's tenth annual invitation tournament on number one field at Pinehurst today when in the second game Fort Bragg's Reds were subdued by Winston-Salem, N. C., by 11 goals to 7. The military four tallied six earned goals and one goal was allowed to balance the ratings.

The Fort Bragg team lost yesterday to a Sand Hill quartet.

A Large Gate.

The gate for the Army-Stanford game was said to be the biggest in value ever known to football.

Basket Squad Working Hard On Tech Court

Fast Practice Games Ordered by Coach as Players Round Into Condition.

BY HERB CLARK.

Coach Roy Mundorff, the guiding hand at the helm of the embryo Yellow Jacket basketball squad, has been working his charges hard of late. His schedule of training includes no soft spots, or has not to date.

Wednesday's workout proved no exception. A scrimmage which kept the boys on the court through three over-minute halves of fast play was the dose handed the Jackets by Mundorff.

The squad seems to be slow in rounding into shape. The absence of a disposition to pass the sphere is Roy's chief obstacle. Though he has but two regulars from last year's squad as the nucleus of his quintet, the presence of two subs from the previous squad, a number of numeral men from the 1927 rat organization, and many finds brought out in the recent Battalion tourney would seem to give him enough material to work with.

The starting lineup for the clash with Clemson January 5, which tears the lid off the cage season at the Flats, is hard to spot at present, but from appearances it will include Captain "Heck" Heeke who will play wheel-horse for the jacket offense, though his alternate, Sid Goldin, will probably be doing the jumping and the dropping back to his own stand, that of guard. The other guard post will be filled by Wages, a graduate from last year's frosh squad, if the youngster continues his present good chance. The starting forwards represent a real problem. Mundorff has a number of good men available, though none of them look like stars at present. Warner, Wilson, Coker, Williamson, Lewis, and Tiffin seem to be the class of the outfit, and are about evenly matched. Mundorff could start any pair of these and see the ball dropping with some regularity.

Mundorff has announced that Vance Mares, star tackle on the present Golden Tornado which is blowing so fiercely on the gridiron, will be out for a guard's berth at the close of the California trip.

This lineup is by no means certain, as plenty of time must elapse before the Jackets take their stand for the opening of their official season, and this period includes a trip over the holidays which will put the Jackets against real opposition and tend to show what they can do under fire.

INDOOR TRACK STARS ARE SET TO OPEN YEAR

BY FRANK GETTY.

United News Sports Editor.
New York, December 12.—(United News).—Those who have been skeptical about the ability and performances of the youngsters sent to Amsterdam to represent the United States in track and field last summer (although in truth there were no good grounds for such skepticism) soon will have a chance to see some of the best of them in action, for the opening of the indoor season is at hand.

Despite the impending arrival of Paavo Nurmi, who gets in Friday on the S. S. Rochambeau, and of Edwin Wide, the Flying Schoolmaster, who is planning a honeymoon trip to this country, the indoor track and field season of 1928-29 will feature domestic talent rather than foreign stars.

Nurmi Is Barred.
It is not likely that either Nurmi or Wide will compete indoors this winter. The former is coming on business, the latter, as has been said, with a bride. The German athletic authorities have forbidden their athletes to come here for athletic competition. So unless some of the Canadians who did so well at the Olympic games accept invitations to come to New York, the home boys will have to battle among themselves.

Percy Williams, the sensational Canadian sprinter who won the 100 and 200-meter dashes at Amsterdam, undoubtedly will be invited to come east and perform this winter. Williams, who was only 20 years old when he showed flying heels to the world's greatest sprinters at the ninth olympiad, is giving up college and will enter business. This, if true, will be a great loss to intercollegiate athletics. Williams, it may be said, could frankly pick the track of a dozen American colleges, and not need to worry about financing himself.

Ball May Compete.

Jim Ball, of Canada, who was driving at Ray Barbour's shoulder at the finish of the 400-meter run at Amsterdam, is another Canadian American track and field fan are hopeful of seeing in action indoors this season.

The recent olympiad should have stimulated interest in track and field to supply the deficiency of foreign talent on the boards, and fans will have a chance to judge for themselves how good some of the Americans who were beaten at Amsterdam really are. Ray Barbour, who won the 400-meter run at the Olympic games, is being sought by New York clubs for the winter's games. So is Bob McAllister, despite the fact that the erstwhile "Flying Scot" announced his retirement from pulling a tendon and breaking down in the finals of the 100-meter dash at Amsterdam. These two are probably the fastest in the world at their respective distances indoors.

Other Olympic contenders who may be seen in action on the eastern boards are Jimmy Quinn, Hank Russell, Ray Conger, Phil Edwards and Lloyd Hahn. The last named also announced his retirement, but may feel the lure of the starter's call before the season is far advanced.

Taylor, Sportsman, Dies at Gotham Home

New York, December 12.—(P)—George H. Taylor, 68, prominent in athletics years ago, died today of heart disease at his New York home. He was one of the organizers of the New York Athletic club and was a former member of the racquet and tennis club.

Mr. Taylor had been in charge of the Frank J. Gould properties in this country since 1910. He was vice president of the Virginia Railway and Power company.

For four years he was secretary of the Union League club here. He also held membership in the Royal Yacht club of London and the New York Yacht club.

15 Basketball Games Booked By Georgia Tech for Season

Fifteen games—thirteen of them with southern conference quintets—have been scheduled for the Yellow Jacket basketballers of Georgia Tech for the coming season, it was announced Wednesday by athletic officials of the school.

Coach Roy Mundorff, master mind of the basketball team at Tech, will send his boys on the court on the night of January 5 to battle the cagers from Clemson in the first game of the season for Tech. Mundorff has been drilling his men for some time and will have them rounded into top form for the opener with the South Carolina boys. Josh Cody's teams are always a menace to conference quintets and will furnish plenty of trouble for the Jackets in the opener of a hard schedule. Practically the same team that caused so much worry in the conference tournament here last season will be on the floor against the Jackets.

Three of the 15 games are scheduled with the Georgia Bulldogs, ancient rivals of the Tech boys in any branch of sport. The University of Florida will come in for two games, the second and third contest on the list. Vanderbilt and Auburn in the conference and the Atlanta Athletic club are all slated for two games each with Mundorff's boys. Alabama, Kentucky, Tennessee and Clemson have one game each on Tech's schedule. The Jackets will close their season with the Georgia Bulldogs in Athens on February 25 and then will turn their thoughts to the annual conference tournament starting March 1 and lasting through the 5th.

The first Tech-Georgia game will be played January 12 in Athens, home of the Bulldogs. The second is slated for Atlanta on January 26 and the final contest in Athens February 25. This outlay of games gives the Jackets one of the hardest schedules in the conference. Not only do they play the toughest quintets in the association but also take on the A. A. C. team, one of the strongest quintets in the south, in two games to be played on January 23 and February 20.

The complete Tech schedule as announced Wednesday follows:
January 5—Clemson in Atlanta.
January 7—Florida in Atlanta.
January 8—Florida in Atlanta.
January 12—Georgia in Athens.
January 13—Kentucky in Atlanta.

J. P. C. Opens Against Rome Team Tonight

Fast Game Is Carded at Y. M. C. A.; Other Quintets Follow in Rapid Order.

First of the city's major basketball teams to get into action, the hustling quintet of the Jewish Progressive club will open its season tonight playing the Rome, Ga., Y. M. C. A. at the court on South Pryor street. The time is 8:30 o'clock.

The game will be the first of 19 arranged for the J. P. C. cagers this year, and marks the beginning of a tough assignment, as some of the teams scheduled are among the best in this part of the country.

The J. P. C. club is coached by the veteran Monk Dorfman, who has been hard at work with his charges for well over a month, whipping them into shape for the coming season.

A number of veterans have been returned for this year's squad and hopes are very high for a successful season.

Plenty of Room.

When the Indians move into the stadium at Cleveland in 1930 and Colonel Rupert gets his new seats into Yankee stadium there will be at least 100,000 more capacity for baseball.

Special men's elevator at Ellis Street entrance direct to second floor clothing department.

Whether one elects to invest only $25, or prefers to buy the best obtainable for $60, he has the pleasure here of choosing an overcoat from several hundred examples of our supremacy in the matter of values, as well as style assortments.

The young man whose taste suggests the ultra models and uncommon effects in both pattern and color will be greatly impressed with the novel manner in which such coats are fashioned and finished.

Most surprising of all is the moderate prices for which coats of such sturdy materials and careful tailoring can be bought.

For the more conservative type there is the widest range of models. This line embraces such fashion notes as appeal to those whose preference runs more to smart simplicity.

It matters not what weight or length or pattern or color, the selection of an overcoat is easily made here where the variety covers every essential feature one could wish.

THE YOUNG PRETENDERS

By Alice Grant Rosman

SYNOPSIS

"Young helpless in bed after a motor accident, Hugo Donaldson broods because he is the smash, never visits him. He decides he must be dead. Lady Eleanor Winslow, who is his friend, Paul, who is in prison for stealing, that he married a girl of whom his family disapproved, and that Bunny Molynux is heartbroken because she expected to marry him. Bunny calls to tell Hugo she believes Paul is the victim of a blackmailer. She is shocked that his family failed him. The girl assures Hugo she was never engaged to Paul, but would like to help him because of their friendship. Hugo gives her his red roadster, which he calls 'Miss Trotsky'.

Paul's wife, living in disguise, as Mrs. Halsett, accepts an offer to read to Hugo every day. She is glad to have an opportunity to study these friends of Paul, whom she believes his enemies, and is surprised to learn that Hugo is loyal and only an accident has prevented him from helping Paul. Tright, Hugo's nurse, cautions him never to mention the boy's father, as the sight of Sir Richard so disturbed Hugo while he was in the hospital, and he became fast friends, and Bunny is the only visitor he is always glad to see. He asks her for the newspaper cuttings about his accident, which the family has refused him. He finds the stories contain no hint of the quarrel with his father, and in the grace of his being sent down from Oxford, and he decides Sir Richard has not forgiven him and has ordered him sent away in this room.

The elders insist Bunny has been jilted and needs pity, which so enrages Hugo that he schemes to stop the gossip, and hits upon the novel idea of an anonymous letter. Hugo and Bunny have been secretly engaged for some time.

INSTALLMENT XXXIV. PLAYING WITH FIRE.

Spring, they say, is the season of young love. Did that blithe spirit shudder to hear these unscrupulous moderns gambling with his name to outwit their enemies, or did he draw nearer sentimentally, seeing only two hapless youngsters brought together out of the urgent need to uphold a friend? Hugo, at least, was aware of his presence and knew he was playing with fire, but he would have done more than that for Bunny. He would have walked through it. He could not tell how Bunny felt, as he watched her bright eyes and changing face, but he knew her presence here beside him was the one good thing in a dark and sullen world and her happiness the only necessity of real importance.

"I suppose," he suggested diffidently, "there isn't any other fellow you'd rather be engaged to at the moment?"

Bunny put her hand dramatically on her heart and her head down in a listening attitude.

"Seems to be all right," she reported. "My heart is perfectly whole. Thank you and yours for the taking."

"Hand it over, then," ordered Hugo, "I love to have it. This is really happening six months ago, of course."

"Yes, but play fair, old Hugo. Aren't you going to offer me yours?"

Bunny was going to have no half measures in her proposal.

"Why, you've had it for years and years," declared Hugo, and Bunny threw back her head and laughed.

"Very neat," she said. "Still speaking six months ago, I suppose we'll have to keep it dark till we're 21, or there'll be a shindy and they'll say we are too young."

"We will now turn our attention to the present day," continued Hugo, in the tone of a lecturer. "Here we see Miss Bunny Molynux calling upon her fiancé of six months' standing, only the poor fool happens to have been lying for part of the time, having tried to break his neck. With true womanly tenderness she soothes the invalid. Come on, Bunny, soothe me at once or I'll take that nice bit back."

"Nice, do you call it?" retorted Bunny. "If you accuse me of being womanly, I'll break it off, I will."

"Talking of which," put in Hugo, quickly, "when some nice chap you really like comes along, just drop me a hint and we'll decide that we've made a mistake. That, of course, is understood."

"Or vice versa," supplemented Bunny. "But the question now before the court is, why are we telling our secrets? We'll have to produce a reasonable reason."

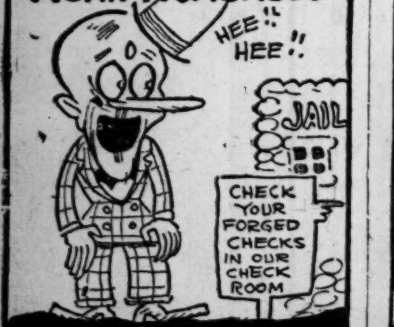

"We thought we ought to," suggested Hugo, smugly. "We didn't like to be deceitful. Besides, I have been trying to persuade you to give me up."

Aunt Het

"I know I'm hateful, but Jessie always had more than I did when we was young, an' it does me good to ride past her place in our new car when she's hangin' out clothes."

because I can't have you tied to a battered wreck, but you have nobly scorned the idea. That'll fetch 'em. I give you my word. And then I want to see a lot of you and we have your reputation to consider." Hugo was warming to his theme, and Bunny, convulsed with laughter, lay back in her chair and applauded.

"Engaged, you can run in and out to see me every day if you like. Disengaged, n. a. Mother will appreciate that point, you'll see. Rather lucky you're taken over Miss Trotsky, Bunny, because that will give an air of reality to the whole thing. What more natural than that I should give my fiancée a little car?"

"Was your mother shocked about that?" inquired Bunny, casually.

"To do mother justice, she is never shocked. Hang it all, she's not so jolly antique as that. But she did suggest it was a little unusual. I was awfully bucked. I told her I was simply bursting to be unusual."

"Well, you are," said Bunny the unexpected.

"Me? Rats, I'm a most usual fellow."

"No, you're not. You're even unusualer than Paul. You see a lot of things Paul would never spot."

"Yes, but that's because I'm lying here with nothing else to do. Paul never had much time on his hands."

"No, not until now."

Their raucous dropped from them in a moment as they started together at the picture of Paul at this hour and all the other hours and thought what dreadful centuries each hour must be. The arrival of tea at this point, a daintily set meal which Paul could not share, seemed utterly indecent. But on bright Lady Donaldson, to say a word of kindly greeting to Bunny, and Hugo knew that the moment of disclosure was at hand.

"Stay and have tea with us, mother," he invited.

The revelation over, Lady Donaldson had gone away convinced, chiefly through the excellent performance of that accomplished actress, Miss Bunny Molynux. Bunny had been so noble in her determination not to break off her engagement to the injured Hugo that any one but his mother, he felt, must have been suspicious; but jokes and evil intentions in other people always passed her by. She was very innocent, his mother, thought Hugo, feeling immensely sophisticated in comparison, and she had been so moved by their recital that it had seemed a shame to deceive her. Still it was in a good cause and a desperate emergency, and it wasn't doing anybody harm.

They had mentioned casually that Paul alone had been in their confidence about the engagement. Hugo hoped his mother had taken in that important point, so that it would reach Mrs. Mostyn's ears, but he could not be sure. With many exclamations of surprise she had kissed them both emotionally, thanking Bunny for her goodness, and Hugo, then hurrying off lest she should give way to tears before her son.

"Fie! This nobility game is wearing when you're not used to it," declared Bunny. "Rather a shame to bull your mother's leg when she is such a lamb. I've a good mind to smoke one of your pipes."

Hugo, delighted at her choice of antidotes, handed one over and chuckled at the sight of Bunny manfully putting away at its imaginary contents.

"They'll say I'm marrying you for your money, Funny Bunny," he remarked.

"They'll say every dam' thing that isn't true, of course," said Bunny, glaring. "I'm none too sure I ought to have let you do it, Hugo."

"Noble girl," chaffed his fiancée. "Noble yourself," snapped Bunny.

"Do you imagine I don't know why you're doing it? I can guess what Molly's next move will be. She'll tell every one you cut Paul out and he went off and married the other girl because he was so upset. You'll get the blame for the whole thing."

Hugo, rather pleased at this prophecy than otherwise, lifted up his voice in song:

"O, what a lovely web we weave
When first we practice to deceive!"

"Come on, Bunny, join in the chorus."

Bunny joined in, made an anthem of it, and conducted the performance with the pipe as baton. Leader, coming to take the tea table away, interrupted Bunny's top note, with many apologies.

"Do you think your mother would give us a wedding present if we asked her nicely?" said Bunny, as he disappeared.

"We'll insist upon it," declared Hugo, grateful to Bunny for pretending it was a real engagement and they would actually be married some day. (Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

RAINFALL HALTS WORK OF CLEARING COTTON ACREAGE

Washington, December 12.—(AP)—Crop and weather conditions for the week ended yesterday as summarized by the department of agriculture says: "Some progress was made in cleaning cotton fields in the northwestern belt, though it was rather too cold and damp in most places, and rainfall near the close of the week stopped work. In northeastern districts the weather was generally favorable for outside operations."

DRUG OFFICIALS

City Wide Open, Law Enforcement Association Declares.

Kansas City, December 12.—(AP)—Telegrams requesting immediate action on the liquor situation in Kansas City, characterized by local and federal officials alike as a "wide open town," were dispatched late today to prohibition officials in Washington and to Governor Frank A. Campbell, Missouri, by the Law Enforcement association.

The action followed assertions that at least 1,000 liquor selling places were operating in Kansas City and charges of laxity and police protection which were brought out in a letter from the association in a weeking a neighborhood saloon with an ex Monday.

The telegrams to the Washington authorities and the governor were signed by Howard McCutcheon, Allen A. Neel, William Volker and Russell F. Griner, all prominent business men and members of the association.

"The association has known for a long time that the government, state and city law enforcement officers have been coping inadequately with the situation in the city," these men said in a statement.

"We pointed out to M. J. Doran, Washington, chief prohibition commissioner," the statement continued, "that conditions here could not exist unless some sort of protection force was in the city, and that the government conspiracy law was, in our judgment, the best weapon to use against such protection."

"The federal government's most effective work in fighting graft in police, state and city law enforcement officers has been the law convicting these officials of conspiracy. The weapon has been used effectively in Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and other cities. In Cincinnati, 32 policemen were sent to prison on such charges."

Federal auditors tonight had checked the matter of enforcement up to the police with a pledge of cooperation if they went about it right, and police and reported by initiating a drive against bootleggers.

Police placed the onus on loopholes in the law and the county prosecutor's office, saying that a handful of convictions had been obtained out of 3,000 arrests, and the prosecutor's office passed it back to police charging slipped methods of obtaining evidence.

Navy Air Unit.

Miami, Fla., December 12.—(AP)—Establishment of a naval reserve aviation unit in Miami has been recommended to United States navy department operations executives by the bureau of aeronautics, Lieutenant W. H. Green, commander of fleet division 1, U. S. N. reserve of Miami, announced today.

SAY MAN—

WHAT would make your wife and children more thankful than for you to tell them you had bought a real home for them?

WEST END Heights, corner of Lawton St. and Donnelly Ave., is a good place to buy. I am thinking of selling my beautiful home on Donnelly Avenue and Living Place. If you paid twice the price with me, you could not get better material nor workmanship. Best grade oak floors, built-in tub, copper screens, complete bathroom, furnace—in fact a real home.

NOW, I will tell you the best part. Can be bought on the disappearing mortgage plan. No interest coupons to pay, no reduction in loans to be bothered with. You pay the same each month, no more than the amount the house would rent for. If you want a home you should come to see me.

T. C. HOLMES, Owner.

1154 Donnelly Ave. W. E. 2121-W, or DE 6182.

SAY MAN—

WHAT would make your wife and children more thankful than for you to tell them you had bought a real home for them?

WEST END Heights, corner of Lawton St. and Donnelly Ave., is a good place to buy. I am thinking of selling my beautiful home on Donnelly Avenue and Living Place. If you paid twice the price with me, you could not get better material nor workmanship. Best grade oak floors, built-in tub, copper screens, complete bathroom, furnace—in fact a real home.

NOW, I will tell you the best part. Can be bought on the disappearing mortgage plan. No interest coupons to pay, no reduction in loans to be bothered with. You pay the same each month, no more than the amount the house would rent for. If you want a home you should come to see me.

Thomaston, December 12.—(Special.)—Mary Kate Turner, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Turner, of Thomaston, died Wednesday morning at an Atlanta hospital after a brief illness. She is also survived by a brother, C. E. Turner, Jr., and three grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Turner, of Pell City, Ala.; and Mrs. F. B. Lippitt, of Atlanta.

The remains will be taken to Thomaston Thursday by Ed Bond and Condon, funeral directors, and services will be conducted Friday morning at the First Methodist church at Thomaston.

White House in Good Shape
EXTENSIVE REPAIRS HAVE BEEN MADE For Incoming President

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

Written Exclusively for The Constitution and the North American Newspaper Alliance.

Copyright, 1928, by the North American Newspaper Alliance.

Washington, December 12.—When Herbert Hoover takes up his residence at the white house, he will find that beautiful and historic building in good condition, better than for any incoming president in many years.

Only a little more than a year ago the famous old mansion and executive residence was taken over by the government and underwent extensive repairs and alterations, and was renovated virtually from cellar to attic. As a matter of fact, the attic was transformed into a room with more than a dozen rooms, most of which are being used as servants' living quarters. More than $300,000 was spent on all these improvements.

It has been the practice to repaint the exterior and interior of the white house every two years. This will be done again probably during the coming summer, although it is difficult to detect any real need for it now in the interior, and the outside has not been repainted since the war. The beauty of the building is at all marred. The furniture and furnishings and other household equipment are in good order. Mr. Coolidge, while always practicing economy, did not permit the interior of the presidential home to suffer. As a result the Hoovers will find the carpets and rugs, the window draperies, the furniture, china, silver and pictures just as they should be.

Exceptional Care Taken. The Coolidges have taken exceptional care of everything within the white house, and the Hoovers will not find it necessary to do any repainting.

The incoming president has the privilege of ordering any changes or alterations. He may shift rooms about, remove pictures and other decorations, and substitute those of his own selection. He may discard the china, silver and linen used by his predecessor, if he has a mind to, and may relocate the furniture to the storerooms.

It is the custom for each new president to purchase a set of china, and it has been the practice for the president to select the design or pattern. This time then takes the name of that particular first lady, and is known by her name. The new set of china is a part of the white house equipment. It has been the custom, too, for some pieces in this china to find a resting place in the national museum at Washington.

Hoovers Well Supplied. Inasmuch as the Hoovers have maintained a large establishment in Washington for a number of years, and it is suspected that they have a quantity of household goods, it is not unlikely that they will take with them to the white house a liberal amount of their own.

In the white house now various pieces of furniture associated with former presidents, such as the Lincoln and Jackson chairs, are still in use. The Jackson rocker, are still in use.

3 SUSPECTS SEIZED
IN ELDORADO, ARK.,
BANK ROBBERIES

El Dorado, Ark., December 12.—(AP)—Three men were held in jail today as suspects in bank robberies at Junction City, near here, and at Grand Cane, La., last week and a deputy sheriff was dead as a result of a heart attack while he was arresting one of the men.

Those held are Leonard W. Campbell, of Marion, La., and Nelson Walls, of Monroe, La., who were arrested near Farmerville, La., Monday night, and L. L. Stanley, who was arrested near Farmerville last night.

While arresting Stanley, Lon Staniel, chief of police of the town of parish, Louisiana, dropped dead. Death was caused by heart trouble, it was said.

BOARD APPROVES
SALE OF 2 VESSELS
TO C. D. MALLORY

Washington, December 12.—(AP)—The board of shipping board vessels to C. D. Mallory of New York, of the ship of $600,000 cash was approved today by the board.

The two vessels, the Chickamauga and the Wickham, are now laid up at Norfolk and New York. The sales agreement includes installation by the purchaser of a new engine in the former, at a cost of $20,000. Both vessels will be used for ocean tramp service.

WILMINGTON WOMAN IS FOUND DROWNED

Wilmington, N. C., December 12.—(AP)—A woman found drowned late today in the Cape Fear river near here by fishermen was tonight identified as Mrs. Eva Mae Bland, 36, wife of H. J. Bland, of this city.

While investigation was being prosecuted by Sheriff Allen, he said tonight that there were no marks of violence discovered on the body. Her husband told him, he said, that he could answer for her disappearance, wishing to take her own life.

6 MORE NEW YORK
WHOOPEE PALACES
GET POLICE VISIT

New York, December 12.—(AP)—Continuing a clean-up started early yesterday when five night clubs and restaurants were raided, federal prohibition agents and city police early today raided six night clubs and alleged speakeasies and arrested eight persons.

The places raided were the Pastime club in West 54th street, the new Capitol club in West 52nd street, the Rio club in West 118th street, an alleged speakeasy in West 49th street, the Tavern and the Colby club in West Third street. The last two places are in the Greenwich Village section.

City detectives who made the raids on the Pastime club and the West 40th street place arrested three men for possession of liquor. The other places were raided by federal men. All those arrested were employees.

Officers and directors of the company arrived here late today to witness the opening of the plant.

The factory, which has a capacity of 90 gallons of oil an hour, will be enlarged as the 2,500 acres planted in tung trees near here, come into full bearing, according to L. P. Moore, president of the company.

Scene To Depict
Start of London
Rubber Industry

Gainesville, Fla., December 12.—(AP)—A scene reminiscent of the first production of rubber in London, which was the beginning of the British rubber industry, will be enacted here tomorrow when what is claimed to be the first gallon of tung oil ever produced outside China will be manufactured in the newly-erected plant of the Alachua Tung Oil company.

Officers and directors of the company arrived here late today to witness the opening of the plant.

The factory, which has a capacity of 90 gallons of oil an hour, will be enlarged as the 2,500 acres planted in tung trees near here, come into full bearing, according to L. P. Moore, president of the company.

The regular communication of John R. Wilkinson Lodge No. 445, B. P. O. E. will be held in this (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock in the temple, corner Peachtree and Duane streets, this (Thursday) evening, December 13, 1928, at 7:30 o'clock. The degree of Master Mason will be conferred. Brethren are cordially and fraternally invited to attend. By order of J. R. WILKINSON, W. M.
